Co-Insurance End Pledged

Liberal Parley Votes Down Urgent Advice of Premier

By GORDON FORBES, Times Legislative Reporter

VANCOUVER, April 25—The B.C. Liberal Party stands pledged to abolish co-insurance from the province's hospital insurance scheme if it is re-elected to govern the province at the June 12 general election.

PREMIER OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN

(Special to the Times)

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 25—Despite the rejection of his co-insurance policy by the Liberal Party convention, Premier Byron Johnson prepared to launch the party's election campaign here tonight.

In his own riding the Premier will make the first major speech of a six-week tour that will take him all over Vancouver Island next week then throughout the balance of the province.

There was speculation that the Premier might resign if over-ruled on what he considered a vital policy, but he has accepted the verdict of the convention as a majority party decision and will campaign for the platform as drafted.

In a hectic day-long debate, the party convention here Thursday voted down the advice and pleading of its leader, Premier Byron Johnson, and nailed down the "abolish co-insurance" plank into a 73-point platform on which it will appeal to the electors.

(Co-insurance provides that people going into hospital must contribute up to a maximum of $3.50 per day for the first 10 days' stay.)

In over-riding the Premier, despite his fighting speech on the issue, the convention wiped out his compromise proposal. This was to remove both co-insurance and premiums from marginal income groups, and to abolish co-insurance for maternity cases. Both of these groups would, of course, escape co-insurance under the new plan.

After settling this controversial issue the convention hammered out the rest of its platform and finished the two-day re-election convention late in the evening.

A standing vote of 3 to 1 passed the co-insurance clause.

Johnson Refuses to Cancel Order

At first the convention sought to instruct the Premier to wipe it out immediately by order in council, but the Premier said he "could not and would not" do that because he did not have the authority.

The final resolution, suggested by George Gregory of Oak Bay, was that "co-insurance be removed at the next session of the Legislature."

J. A. Manill spoke strongly in support of Premier Johnson.

"We saw a brave man at the morning sitting. To be criticized by one's enemies is easy to take, but when it comes from one's friends that is hard to take." The Premier today has been criticized for his judgment, ability and humanity. He has accepted it with bravery and dignity. Men who can do that are great and scarce," the delegate said.

Nancy Hodges of Victoria came to the Premier's support, declaring: "There comes a time when you have to take a stand that you can't expect everything for nothing. For British Columbia that time has come."

William Rea and Ken McKenzie supported the Premier.

Main Points of Liberal Party's 1952 Platform

VANCOUVER, April 24—The first straight Liberal party platform to be drafted in more than ten years has been finalized by the biggest Liberal convention in history held for the last two days here.

More than 800 delegates hammered out each plank in the platform in the hopes that their deliberations will place a Liberal government in Victoria for the next four years.

The convention was highlighted by lively debate which delegates felt "augurs well" for Liberalism in British Columbia. In total the platform has 73 planks.

Here are the main ones.

The party pledges to:

1. Conduct the affairs of the province so the public and the investor will be assured of sound and stable administration of public affairs.

Squamish Road Start Immediately

8. Proceed immediately with construction of the Squamish-North Vancouver road.

9. Extend the Pacific Great Eastern Railway into the Peace River district and into North Vancouver, and construct a lumber assembly dock at Squamish.

10. Encourage establishment of branch lines from the main trunk natural gas pipeline by giving favorable terms for right-of-way over crown lands.

11. Construct a new jail to relieve congestion at Oakalla Prison.

12. Evolve an education program to prevent inroads of narcotics into the province's youth.

13. Set up immediately a representative committee to study all phases of the problem of alcoholism and recommend a provincial program of treatment.

14. Give careful study to the inquiry reports on hospital insurance, labor laws and workmen's compensation.

15. Continue an aggressive policy in public health, including continued expansion of local health services; further development of the dental care program, with emphasis on chronic and convalescent cases, and further development of a program of rehabilitation of handicapped persons.

16. Press claims to the federal government to get B.C. benefit similar to those provided by the Prairie Farms Rehabilitation Act.

17. Increase the agricultural department appropriation.

18. Instruct the B.C. Power Commission to make a survey with a view to utilizing the full generating facilities which may

2. Recommend abolition of hospital co-insurance to the next legislative session.

3. Devise a program of improvements to secondary highways.

4. Continue the extensive highway development program on arterial highways and bridges.

5. Appoint a legislative committee to study the effect of forest management licenses on the logging industry, and in particular the small operator—to report at the next session.

6. Appoint a legislative committee to study the whole matter of education in the province, in particular the financial aspect. Payment of half the cost of new school construction would continue.

7. Continue financial assistance to communities in the construction of necessary hospitals for acute and chronic cases.

19. Accelerate the rural electrification program and develop power as soon as possible to serve the Prince George-Queens area.

20. Construct a new boys' industrial school.

21. Expand the present farmers' land-clearing program to bring more agricultural land into production.

22. Give assistance to farmers in obtaining adequate water supplies.

23. Continue the building expansion program at the University of B.C.

24. Integrate the two normal schools into U.B.C. as a faculty of teacher training.

To Revise Teachers' Pensions

25. Revise the teachers' superannuation.

26. Establish a provincial safety council.

27. Establish regional safety conferences with employers and employees to minimize industrial accidents.

28. Establish a commission to improve the capital city (Victoria).

29. Pursue a policy of support for the solution of problems facing the salmon industry so it may eventually be on a sustained yield basis.

30. Increase the outdoor sports facilities by expanding the program of stocking lakes and streams and increasing the release of game birds.

AIRWOMAN'S DEATH TO BE INVESTIGATED

Coroner Will Call 30 People

TORONTO, April 25 (CP)—Dr. Smirle Lawson, Ontario's chief coroner, said today he will subpoena 30 witnesses to testify at an inquest May 8 into the death of a 19-year-old girl, Lottie Marchura, 27, formerly of Alonsa, Man.

The girl died after being treated at the suburban Weston supply depot at which she was stationed and three hours after she was admitted to Sunnybrook Veterans' Hospital.

Witnesses from the defense department in Ottawa will be called to the hearing. Some of the latter will be questioned as to why an investigation was not pressed farther in their department after they were notified by R.C.A.F. authorities in Toronto.

Dr. C. S. Dunning, coroner of North York township, listed the death as accidental, saying he had not called an inquest because there were no signs of foul play.

An analysis of the stomach contents showed strychnine.

Meanwhile from his home in northern Manitoba, Cpl. Stanley Marchura of the R.C.A.F., said in a telephone interview:

"I was told how my sister had died but I asked for an autopsy, I wanted it in writing. I believe there was negligence and I will probably take legal action."

Dr. Lawson said:

"We will question everybody—doctors, nurses, everybody connected with the case," he said, "and the truth will come out."

Father of 10-Year-Old Wins Suit for Damages

A judgment against Sgt. Thomas Stevenson, of city police, in the amount of $12,414 has been handed down by Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane, of B.C. Supreme Court.

The sum is for injuries sustained by Murray Easton, 10, when struck and severely injured by an automobile driven by Stevenson in October, 1949. The accident occurred on Shelbourne Street.

Mr. Justice Macfarlane's judgment provides that $10,000 be paid as general damages and $2,414 as special damages. In addition, the judge orders Stevenson to pay costs of the court action.

TOOK EIGHT DAYS

Civil suit against the police officer was initiated by Kenneth E. Easton, 3441 Bonair Place, father of the boy.

Hearing of the case by Mr. Justice Macfarlane took eight days, during which six doctors were called to testify. The plaintiff called four and the defense two.

In his judgment, His Lordship observed the medical men "were in violent disagreement as to extent and permanence of the injuries."

It was argued by the plaintiff's side that the boy would never fully recover from certain injuries received; would not be able to pursue a normal boyhood, and because of severe shock and loss of schooling would be somewhat mentally retarded.

When tried before a police court magistrate in connection with the accident Stevenson was found guilty of careless driving.

Dr. Calvert Consecrated Bishop Today

CALGARY, April 25 (CP)—Dr. George Reginald Calvert today was consecrated fourth Anglican bishop of Calgary in the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer.

He succeeds Rt. Rev. Harry R. Raggs, who retired Dec. 31 because of ill-health.

Bishop Calvert was consecrated by a former bishop of Calgary, Most Rev. L. R. Sherman, now Archbishop of Rupert's Land. Assisting was Most Rev. W. F. Barfoot, Archbishop of Edmonton and primate of the church.

Dr. Calvert, 52, was formerly dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria. (See picture, Page 3).

Sexton Expected To Be Elected Metropolitan

The Anglican House of Bishops, meeting in Vancouver, will elect a new metropolitan of the ecclesiastical province of British Columbia today. The ecclesiastical province includes the Yukon.

The election follows the resignation, last year, of the Most Rev. E. R. Adams.

Reliable sources in Vancouver today stated that the election of Right Rev. Harold E. Sexton, Bishop of British Columbia, is "expected." Bishop Sexton is acting metropolitan and senior bishop in the province.

Announcement of the appointment will be made at the convocation of the Anglican Theological College at Brock Hall, University of British Columbia, tonight.

The archbishop's office carries with it the title of archbishop of the ecclesiastical province. He is addressed as His Grace.

The new metropolitan will be installed at a ceremony to be held at Christ Church Cathedral here Sunday night.

He will be installed by the Right Rev. F. Standford, Bishop of Cariboo. Eleven bishops, including two from the United States, are expected to attend the colorful ceremony.

Absent from today's meeting of the House of Bishops were Most Rev. W. F. Barfoot, Archbishop of Edmonton and Primate

BISHOP SEXTON

ARMISTICE TALKS BACK INTO OPEN

Allies Propose Full-Dress Parley Sunday After Secret Prisoner Exchange Talks End

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

MUNSAN, Korea, April 25 (AP)—The United Nations command tonight proposed a full-dress meeting Sunday of Allied and Communist armistice delegations. The surprise move came six hours after the Communists broke off secret negotiations on how to exchange prisoners of war.

The U.N. gave no reason for suggesting a plenary session.

The Communists called off the secret prisoner negotiations after the U.N. command announced it would return less than half the Reds captured in Korea.

"The effect of the Red action was to remove the veil of secrecy from negotiations," the Communists said in a statement.

The prisoner talks were recessed at the request of Col. George Hickman, who said the U.N. command wanted to reassess its position in the light of developments.

Neither side suggested truce talks were in total collapse. But grim Allied negotiators made no effort to mask the seriousness of the situation.

ON THE TIMES

By ART STOTT

Out in the newsroom, as this is being written, is a group of earnest-looking young people. They're students who have been contributing to the weekend page, Hi-Times. This is their chance to put in a working day at the office and on the beats.

From it they may absorb something of the atmosphere of a newsroom, something of the mounting pitch that goes into work as deadlines near. And through exposure, they may contract that almost malarial germ which infects a person who has worked on a news-paper and for which there seems to be no abiding cure.

Stott

These may be a budding Arthur Brisbane, Arthur Crock, Ben Nicholas or John Dufoe among them. There may be the makings of an Alsop, a Lippmann, a Thomas or an Ernie Pyle in the crowd. The older hands are treating them with a seriousness that isn't condescension, and the kids appear to be taking the experience as something more than a gag.

It's an interesting spectacle, even for an old guy whose earlier contacts with boys' parliaments, boy mayors and young citizens' days haven't left too favorable impressions. The youngsters visiting the newsroom and trying their hands at routine operations are the stuff from which future newspapermen and women will be made.

The day in the newsroom won't put them in that category. If they want to make the grade they'll probably have to start, as generations of newspaper people started before them, filling inkwells and pasting, answering telephones, running out for cigarettes, gradually working up to writing news briefs, covering minor sport, graduating from one menial phase to another as they learn the trade.

Just Impressions

What they are receiving now, in their day's visit, are impressions of the newsroom and the beats—which is something quite different from learning the feel of news. Before they learn that, they'll need a lot more experience in living and in watching how people react to one another. Old heads aren't going to be put on young shoulders in a single day's hitch. Judgment isn't going to be born in the quick flare of a flashlight.

Still, they are being given an opportunity to work beside the men and women who handle the day's run of news, exercising the skills which experience has given them. They should find a lot of the sensational hokum of the Hollywood newspaperman and the radio version swept aside in the actual production of a paper. They should recognize a lot of outside impressions of the job for what they are—the Christmas wrappings that bear little relationship to the parcel that's inside.

A guy who's been in the business probably too long hopes they won't be disillusioned. He hopes they'll still see events and people with the eyes of young enthusiasm, that they'll avoid a lot of the shallow cynicism that is often erroneously attached to the trade. In a wistful sort of way, the guy would like, for a while, to change places with the youngsters. He doesn't even want to take his old head with him to place on young shoulders. He'd be quite satisfied with a young head—one with a little thicker thatch of hair.

He doesn't hanker after prudence, caution, judgment, or self-analysis. He'd be happy enough just to have the ebullience of the kids and their apparent absorption in the belief that the job they're trying to do is the biggest job there is at the moment.

Fresh, Like Crisp Lettuce

He recognizes the fact that such an attitude is a big part of working on a newspaper. He's old enough to realize the logic in the French saying that the more things change, the more they're the same. But he'd like to be encouraged into thinking that something is absolutely new, is absolutely different, has never happened before.

That's the point of view which gives freshness to the shading of spring foliage, new each year though it roves back through the centuries. It's the sort of thing that endows the first born with the miracle of newness, that makes it unique to its parents.

It's the kind of reaction that gives vitality, bounce and attraction to the business of living and reporting. It's something the youngsters visiting the newsroom have and should hang onto if they intend to go ahead in this craft.

Protest on Court Case Referred to Commission

Complaint of a citizen concerning disposition of his case by the police magistrate was referred to the police commission Thursday by city council.

Ald. Waldo Skillings objected, stating the complaint was outside jurisdiction of council or commission.

William H. Hawthorne in a letter to the mayor, charged discrimination, and the mayor recommended the complaint be sent to the Attorney-General.

Ald. Skillings contended the man could appeal a magistrate's ruling in a higher court.

Three members of city council and the city manager will attend the U.B.C.M. convention at Vernon. Two aldermen, the solicitor and manager will attend a Nainimo meeting for Island municipalities.

Council opposed the mayor's suggestion that only the solicitor attend the U.B.C.M. and one alderman and solicitor, the island party.

Council approved a B.C. Products Fair parade May 3 and a baseball club booster parade April 29, subject to approval by the chief of police.

Truck Overturns, Passenger Hurt

A passenger received severe facial lacerations but the driver was uninjured when a truck missed a corner at Glenford and Quadra Wednesday night and overturned.

Taken to Jubilee Hospital was Reginald Croft, 619 Fort. The driver of the car was Gordon Ellis, 3003 Cedar Hill Road, said Saanich police.

Liberals Pledged to Probe Effects Of B.C.'s Forest Management Policy

By GORDON FORBES
Times Legislative Reporter

VANCOUVER, April 25.—The British Columbia Liberal Party has pledged itself to appoint a legislative committee to investigate the effect of the government's forest management policy on the logging industry.

The effect on the independent logger and the truck logger would be determined, and the report tabled at the "next session of the Legislature."

This platform plank was decided on Thursday by more than 800 delegates to the Liberal convention here. The convention amended the original platform proposal which was to appoint a Royal Commission to make a survey before 1955 in accordance with the recommendation of the Sloan Report.

The action came when delegate after delegate rose to express concern over forest management's effect on the small operator.

William Robinson of Alberni started the ball rolling. He is president of a small operators' association, comprising 22 operators, "90 per cent of which are closed down because they can get no raw material." The forest management plan, he contended, should ensure these men raw material. More than 200 employees are affected, he said.

ACTION NEEDED
"They will all be on relief soon. I'm not trying to scare anyone. These are just facts. We want action at the next session of the legislature," declared Mr. Robinson.

He immediately received the wholehearted support of H. J. Welch of Comox, a logger himself. Mr. Welch introduced the motion which was finally accepted by the convention.

B. M. MacIntyre, Mackenzie, said the independent loggers are "confused and frustrated" by the situation forest management has brought about. "They are looking to this convention for protection," he stated. Larry Fogo said the Liberals will be in a powerful position in ten or 15 ridings if something isn't done for the small operators.

"All we want is an inquiry now—before all the country is given away to the big operators." Now is the time to stop and take a look," said a logger delegate.

Most delegates agreed forest management was good, but they were concerned about the way licenses were being handled.

Lands and Forest Minister E. T. Kenney told the convention nobody is trying to squeeze out the small operator. The small operators and the big operators need each other, he said.

The minister said many of the licenses already granted have gone to small operators.

"There is no intention to put the little fellow out of business." We are just trying to put a floor under the industry so there won't be a repeat of the '30's," said Mr. Kenney.

Condensed from CP, AP, and UP Dispatches

WAR—Allied fighter-bombers swept in low over the Korean battle line today bombing and strafing Communist front-line positions a second consecutive day.

Dense clouds over North Korea gave the Reds a temporary respite from aerial bombardment of hard-hit railways and supply facilities. But Communist troops and artillery concentrations got the full treatment of bombs, rockets, jellied gasoline and machine-gun bullets.

Ground action along the 155-mile battle front was limited to patrol skirmishes and light Red probing attacks.

The Eighth Army said United Nations patrols twice drew heavy enemy fire northwest of Yonchon on the western front. An estimated 15 Communists were killed. There was no report of Allied casualties.

CONVINCED—In Detroit Navy Secretary Dan Kimball today urged more aid to Chinese Nationalists on Formosa "to make them more able" to fight.

"It is not for me to say where or when they should fight," he said, "but they are willing... and I would like to see us give them more help."

Kimball, in a speech prepared for delivery to the Aero Club here, said his recent trip to Asia convinced him that the Filipinos, free Chinese and the Japanese are "as willing to fight for their freedom as the Koreans."

DIED—"Big Bill" Campbell, 57, formerly of Ottawa, one of Britain's most popular stage and radio stars who came from Canada 20 years ago, died in London today from a heart ailment.

Campbell made his name with a "wild west" show set in a cowboys' bunkhouse. The show was broadcast for many years. He was also a successful racehorse owner.

His wife, Peggy Bailey, who sang in his "Rocky Mountain Rhythm" show, and his children, live in Dublin, Ireland.

PARADE—Canadian and British troops along with an R.A.F. regiment and Royal Marines will stage a giant parade Monday at Minden, Germany, for Gen. Eisenhower.

The review by the Allied Supreme Commander will mark the start of a three-day farewell tour of his forces in West Germany.

The Canadian 27th Infantry Brigade is stationed at Hanover.

WITHDRAWAL—In Montreal Judge Rene Theberge today ordered withdrawal of a charge against Herman Buller, Montreal lawyer, of having unlawfully deprived an unmarried mother of her infant twins and detaining them without her consent.

The lawyer is one of three persons who were charged separately with the same offence, which police claimed was connected with a plan to procure babies for adoption in the United States and Canada.

CHARGED—In Toronto Adolbert Verrault, 31, today was charged with Arson in connection with a fire Thursday in a sub-urban Long Branch house in which 11-month-old Michael Lafontaine was burned to death in his crib.

Police accuse Verrault, a carpenter, of setting the fire for $500 to help a woman friend collect $4,500 insurance money on the cottage, occupied by the baby and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lafontaine.

MIFFED—Today, first anniversary of the Korean Battle of Kapyong, for which the 2nd Battalion of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry was cited for merit by President Truman, saw members of the unit still not permitted to wear the decoration.

To date the Canadian Army has taken the stand that the regiment should be able to show the decoration on its battle honors but individuals should not be allowed to wear it.

This is a sore point with the Patricias. Many of them are reported to have been wearing the decoration under the flap of their left breast pocket.

"SAUCERS"—Jonathan Parker, 12-year-old schoolboy, today reported he spotted a whole flight of flying saucers Thursday night.

He said he saw eight "saucers" flying low over the Fraser River in a "V" formation.

"They were orange in color and they left a blue glow in the sky," he was the only one to spot the strange objects and R.C.A.F. observers reported nothing unusual sighted during the night.

SCALDED—Giles Gauthier, 2, was scalded to death Thursday when he fell in a tub of boiling water in a basement at the army barracks at Jacques Cartier, just across the river from Montreal.

The boy was living with his parents in a section of the barracks turned into a housing development after the Second World War.

Separate School Issue Toned Down by Liberals

VANCOUVER, April 25—Anticipated fireworks over the drive by Roman Catholics to integrate separate schools with the B.C. public schools system failed to materialize at the Liberal party convention here.

The issue apparently was worked out behind closed doors. Delegates breathed a sigh of relief because they feared a blow-up on the issue would result in a split which would be bad for the party so near an election.

The B.C. Catholic Education Association is scheduled to make an announcement on the subject Friday night.

Referring to earlier resolutions on the matter, resolutions committee chairman Bert Hebdon said his committee decided it would be wise to table them. He said it is a delicate subject and might cause strife within the party at a time when harmony is important. The convention concurred.

The delegates then passed a resolution which appeared to give vague recognition to the problem. Roman Catholics reportedly felt they have their "foot in the door."

The resolution noted that in the past two years the government has corrected certain apparent discriminations, such as granting to children in separate schools free text books in elementary classes. Also, health services were granted to non-profit private schools on the same basis as those for public schools.

The convention approved a resolution urging the government to consider any other apparent matters of discrimination with a view to eliminating them. No debate occurred. The motion was considered a stop-gap compromise by many delegates.

Liberals Elect Hebdon to Office

Special to The Times

VANCOUVER, April 25.—G. A. A. Hebdon, hard-working Victoria Liberal, was one of five vice-presidents elected by the B.C. Liberal Association meeting in convention here.

Mr. Hebdon was chairman of the resolutions committee during the party.

Mrs. J. L. Gates of Victoria was elected president earlier in the convention.

Samuel McRae of Vancouver was elected first vice-president. Other vice-presidents elected were Mrs. Florence Leary, Nakusp; Hubert King, Prince George; Mr. Hebdon, and Charles Defleur of Richmond.

Where Former Victoria Dean Was Consecrated

In the sanctuary of the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer, at Calgary, above, from a point in the nave, looking eastward, Very Rev. George R. Calvert, D.D., former dean and rector of Christ Church here was consecrated bishop of the Anglican Diocese of Calgary. Another gathering that will fill the pews is expected to attend the service tonight in which the new bishop will be enthroned. In the cathedral, the chancel and nave are divided by a rood screen. In Victoria's Christ Church Cathedral wrought iron rail with gilded parts, which formerly for many years was in Westminster Abbey, stands in the corresponding place. (See story page 1.)

Truman's Slip of Tongue Causes Raised Eyebrows, Splash in Press

WASHINGTON, April 25 (AP)—President Truman's off-the-cuff assertion that he forced the Russians out of Iran by a personal ultimatum to Premier Stalin led to some unhappy tongue-clucking in high quarters today.

A press office "clarification" of Truman's extemporaneous statement at a press conference Thursday pointed out the embarrassment occasioned by this and other offhand remarks that have raised eyebrows around the world.

British newspapers splashed the "ultimatum" story under such headlines as "sensation at Truman talk," and "blunders by Mr. Truman."

Truman cited the Iran matter in outlining some of the actions he and other presidents have taken to meet national emer-

Kansas Flood Workers Maintain Vigil After Dikes Hold Back Missouri Crest

By LARRY HALL
KANSAS CITY, April 25 (AP).—The Kansas City area was over the hump today in its fight against the Missouri River but flood workers still maintained a vigil along the network of dikes for possible weak spots.

The flood-choked river continued to fall here after reaching its peak Thursday just a fraction under 30.7 feet. That was better than 10 feet under the top of the levees.

$25,000,000 flood relief bill in Washington. A little later he allotted $250,000 of emergency funds to his home state of Missouri and $100,000 to Kansas, where four counties were affected.

On the Mississippi River, the record flood there inundated a

Clinton, Ia., residential area eight blocks from the waterfront. It was the second flood blow in a year for Clinton.

Sentiment up and down the river seemed to be this year's flood was no worse than last year's. Everyone had feared it would be more serious.

The Ebb Tide

UNLESS THE REPUBLICANS ARE stupid beyond belief, we are probably witnessing now the decline and fall of one of the most notable administrations in American history. The New Deal, inaugurated just 19 years ago this spring, is in its last phase.

John W. Dafoe, perhaps the greatest political thinker Canada ever produced, once wrote, in his life of Laurier, that a democratic government could usually win a final term of office after its public welcome had been worn out. In retrospect that seems to be what happened to the Truman government in 1948. By a miracle of personal campaigning Mr. Truman snatched victory from defeat, largely because Mr. Dewey refused to fight at the whistle stops. But Mr. Truman will not fight again and the natural rhythm of the American political system will produce a Republican administration next January unless the Republicans throw away their chances by nominating the wrong man or backing the wrong policy.

Discussing these matters on the C.B.C. last Sunday, Mr. Max Freedman, an able correspondent who knows more about Washington than most Canadians—or most Americans, for that matter—observed a fact which should be obvious. It is that the Democratic Party which produced Roosevelt and Truman in less than two decades is now unable to present any candidate for the presidency more formidable than Senator Kefauver. An admirable gentleman, no doubt, but a vivid contrast to his distinguished predecessors.

Or if Mr. Kefauver is not nominated the party must turn to others no more promising. In Mr. Harriman it possesses an international statesman of first rank but he has had little experience in domestic politics, has no love for them and suffers from the disability of being a rich man, an aristocrat and an intellectual. He is not likely to be nominated, and if nominated is not likely to win—unless the Republicans commit another deliberate suicide.

These personalities are only the outward reflection of a deeper process in American society. The New Deal in fact was entering eclipse when Roosevelt died and no one knew it better than its author. He said as much before the election of 1944.

This does not mean that the New Deal has been or will be repealed. It has permanently altered American society. It was a revolution without violence but a revolution just the same. Roosevelt's intentions, had he lived through his last term, were clear enough. He intended to consolidate the social gains so far made before attempting new ones which might cause a reaction against reform and destroy some of the work already accomplished.

Mr. Truman publicly attempted to expand the New Deal, which he rechristened the Fair Deal, but history was against him. In all his years of office Mr. Truman has been unable to advance beyond the line established by Roosevelt. All his reforms were rejected by the Congress. The high water mark of the New Deal had been reached and could not be exceeded, for the time being anyway.

Mr. Truman has known this for several years. Perhaps the most interesting revelation in his new book of secret papers shows that he understands the flow and ebb of history and realizes that an explosion like that which began in 1933 could not continue indefinitely. He has ridden on an ebb tide.

That tide carries some strange flotilla. But the scandals, the mink coats and the internal quarrels of Washington are flotsam only. They mark but do not direct the tide. It is falling and carrying the Democrats with it, not because the United States has any intention of restoring the pre-Roosevelt society but because it wishes to learn, master and consolidate the peaceful revolution before it advances again.

The same mood and the same rhythm appear in other democratic countries, including Canada. The New Deal, which took various local forms but were all part of the same revolution, are here to stay and the real question now is whether democracies can successfully operate the new societies that they have built.

Tax Changes and Bus Fares

CITY COUNCIL DISCUSSION AND Public Utilities Commission investigations may make clear to the public how and why Victoria may be entitled to a reduction in bus fares as a result of changes in income tax assessments on the B.C. Electric.

A reduction in the rate of taxation assessment amounting to more than 7 per cent has been forecast in the federal budget. That, surely, is a matter of direct concern to the company's earnings, and through them, to the accounting on which charges for service are justified.

The public would like to know just what the taxation change means in relation to company charges, and bus passengers would appreciate information on how it affects them.

At the same time an explanation might be given by the Public Utilities Commission experts of the accounting presented in the annual report of the British Columbia Power Corporation Limited, and subsidiary companies.

In its deductions from gross revenue from 1951 operations, that statement lists among expenses the sum of $4,967,205 under the heading "provision for taxes on income."

Explaining that entry in a latter part of the report is the paragraph: "For the year 1951 provision has been made and charged to operations in the sum of $4,967,205. The additional capital cost allowances of $7,600,000 charged to capital surplus, and the provision for vacation pay liability of $840,000 charged to earned surplus are expected to yield savings of taxes on income estimated at $3,700,000 and $400,000 respectively.

"The total saving of $4,100,000 would reduce the company's assessments for the year 1951 to an estimated total of $867,205. As the companies paid instalments during the year at the approximate rate required by the gross provision charged to operations, they have made over-payments on the basis now adopted and the accompanying balance sheet reflects a substantial figure of taxes on income expected to be recovered."

An accountant's explanation may change the picture, but to the layman's eye that appears to mean that while $4,967,205 was deducted from gross earnings to show a lower operating income, the amount which actually should have been subtracted was merely $867,205.

If that be true, company earnings should be substantially above the 4.75 per cent indicated in the general statement, and the grounds on which the B.C. Electric based its successful recent request for higher bus fares may be materially altered.

The B.C. Electric's explanation has, of course, yet to be heard.

Setting the Pace for Her Sex

ELECTION OF MRS. J. L. GATES OF Victoria to the presidency of the B.C. Liberal Association marks a new step in provincial politics as well as in the participation of women in political leadership.

As a member of the association executive for the past nine years, as first vice-president and, since the resignation of Mr. Harry Perry recently, acting president, Mrs. Gates gained a reputation that last Wednesday gave her a majority of 400 over three male contenders. As the first woman to hold the position, her career will be watched with interest.

The choice of the convention gives concrete evidence of the Liberal view—shared by Prime Minister St. Laurent, it may be noted—that women should play an increasingly important part in political party activities. To this extent, as Madam Speaker Hodges urged, the Liberals have proven that they mean what they say.

It will be up to the women, for their part, to show by their active interest in party affairs that the feminine leadership being provided will enjoy the support it merits.

It may be that the early leaders of the feminist movement, around the turn of the century, could view the situation today, would be more cheered by the individual achievements of such women as Mrs. Hodges and Mrs. Gates, than by the volume of support and interest accorded politics by the rank and file members of their sex.

'Revolutionary' Is the Word for It

UP TO NOW ANYONE WHO CALLED the C.C.F. policy in British Columbia "revolutionary" would be condemned by the socialists for libelling a harmless and constructive piece of statesmanship. It is interesting to observe, therefore, how the C.C.F. News, the party's official organ, regards the new platform. It says:

"Through socialist political action it (the platform) proposes to place, the attainable maximum of economic power in the hands of the people by the exercise of a democratic mandate. Every aspect of this revolutionary purpose that may be accomplished in the foreseeable future is written into the C.C.F. manifesto."

"Revolutionary" is the word for it. The C.C.F. News is to be congratulated on its candor.

... In Capitalists' Clothing

A FIFTH AVENUE TAILOR, DEPLORING the "disappearance of morals, manners and etiquette" in the United States, declares that American men "have become a nation of bums and slobs because of slovenly dress."

This raises the question of whether clothes make the slob as well as the man, and some light seems to be shed on it by the fact that the man who used the term "bums and slobs" was dressed at the time in a "double-breasted waistcoat, striped sack suit, black Homburg and starched collar."

As a tailor, he would naturally be expected to place more emphasis on appearance than reality. Thus, when he avers that "in a country of capitalists you should look like a capitalist," he apparently does not seek to imply that you should also sound like one or feel like one or act like one.

He is satisfied with the proposition that clothes make the tailor, though he might better have settled for the reverse. Like Shaw's Liza Doolittle, he is apt to stifle the company with the language of Billingsgate in the accents of Mayfair.

Chips Off The Old Brock

By DAVID BROCK

THE other day I was on Lulu Island, at the mouth of the Fraser. You probably know it . . . it's that much larger Island beside Sea Island, where the Vancouver airport is. It is a dozen miles long, or more, stretching from the sandheads of the Gulf to New Westminster, and is noted for fruits, milk, vegetables, peat, floods, and race-tracks. It is the present home of that German immigrant named Willi somebody who was suspected of carrying foot-and-mouth disease. If anybody is carrying it now, it isn't Willi, for he has been tested, disinfected, cross-examined, and O.K.'d. But this doesn't soothe the more superstitious farmers. Every time a Lulu farmer thinks of Willi, his foot is in his mouth.

WELL, as I drove along those flat miles I fell to wondering about the state of mind of people who could name an island Lulu. As a geographical name it really is a lulu. It is ugly, unsuitable, improbable, and not duplicated anywhere else on the globe . . . what more could you ask of a name? Once heard it is never forgotten. You know, this name preyed on the mind of a Vancouver poet so much that she actually found herself writing this nonsense:

Where Lulu rears her stubble head.

SHE found herself printing it, too, as my scrapbook will prove. The island doesn't rear its head, really . . . it is all peat bogs and silt, dead level at something like extreme high water, and has to be dyked in. Further, a girl with a stubble head is hardly the subject for a passionate poem, whether her name be Lulu or Athenais de Tonny-Charente, who was later Madame de Montespan . . . Madame de M. came a bit short of having the world's loveliest character, but she was all right in the matter of lovely names. She might have gone to heaven a lot quicker if she DID have a stubble head, because then Louis XIV wouldn't have noticed her, and she'd never have got sunburnt by Le Roi Soleil, who was called the Sun King but not Old Sol.

Old King Sol
Was fond of a doll,
And fond of a moll was he.
When he found life dull
He called for his trull
Or a minx, as the case may be.

Now, every dolly
Had a fine broily
And a very fine broily had she,
But the burning blaze
Of Old Sol's rays
Soon tanned her brown as tea.

THAT last line is rather weak, but this is what you call an impromptu. I made it up on the typewriter as I went along, and when you compose poetry as mechanically as this you've got to expect certain defects. It isn't like the good old hand-made stuff at all, and isn't meant to be. If you wanted an expensive job, you should have told me. And then I would have measured you, to ensure a half-decent fit. And asked for a deposit.

WHERE were we? Oh yes, Lulu's stubble head getting all reared up. As I say, this isn't at all the ideal set-up for any lyric which is meant to move you strangely. The magic in it has evaporated, somehow. But don't blame the poor poet. She did what she could with the name Lulu, and it's too late now to wish she had settled on some other island, such as . . . well, name an island between Vancouver Island and the mainland . . . let's see, there's D'Arcy Island near Sidney. If this was, as I believe, an island where Doukhobors were detained, that gives you a chance to bring in some stuitable heads. Also, you can bring in D'Arcy McGee, a Father of Confederation and Grandfather of Confusion, which makes this a frightfully Canadian poem, and that's what poems should try their level best to be. To the tune of Billy McGee you could start off:

Where D'Arcy rears his well-brushed head,
Fibber McGee McGaw!

AND that brings in the radio, via Fibber McGee, and this is important, because where would we be today without the radio, especially on lonely islands? It all fits in, you see. However, if you insist on polishing off Lulu Island first, go right ahead. It proves that nothing will stop you. This is the spirit—that made us lucky we didn't do even more harm than we did. You should go far, and the sooner the better. But me, I'm getting off Lulu Island now, and rowing across to Twigg Island, at the foot of Vancouver's Main Street, where I'll take a long stick and write in the sand:

Twigg buds on Fraser's northern branch.
This spring! Prolonged applause!

MY ten-year-old son told me "You know, you're a difficult type." I certainly hope I am able to be as difficult as the situation demands. Which would you rather be, a difficult type or an easy prey?

Purpose Lost

Toronto Globe and Mail

Easter, so we are told, is the season of triumph. Some one has triumphed, all right. Some one has managed almost completely to destroy its true meaning for the American people—and for the Canadian people, as well. How else to explain the New York travesty? How else to explain the finding that only 16 per cent of Canadians associate Easter with the Resurrection?

But perhaps that was to be expected in the Age of Leisure. It is the holiday, not the Holy Day, that counts. For millions of Americans and Canadians, the event that took place 2,000 years ago has only this significance—that it enables them to stay in bed; to go to the races; to pour out a beer, turn on the television set, and watch a woman walking down Fifth Avenue with a stuffed hen on her head.

The Rival Gardeners

Under Our Roof

By JOHN RHODES, STURDY

MONTREAL—Yesterday I went out looking for a horse I once knew. And I want to state right off, before anyone jumps to conclusions, that this horse definitely was not a talking horse.

(Which reminds me of the newspaper crowd that used to gather in the place that once served pea soup and pig's knuckles.) In those days, if you were a newspaperman and you got married, you usually went to Bermuda on your honeymoon, mainly because the steamship company gave you a free pass. The ships sailed at 11 p.m., and on this occasion, when our friend Joe was married, a group of us were sitting around in the place where they served pea soup and pig's knuckles, waiting until it was time to go down to the docks and see Joe and his bride off to Bermuda.

Then someone mentioned the fact that Bermuda didn't allow automobiles, only horses and buggies, and this prompted someone else to remark that it would be a fine idea to get Joe and his bride into the spirit of things by taking them to the boat in a horse-drawn cab.

Well, one thing led to another, and soon we were all in Dominion Square looking for a cab, and the only one around at that time was the ancient affair that was hitched to Sandy. It also turned out that Sandy's owner had left his stand, and so there was no alternative but for us to borrow Sandy and the cab.

I drove. We picked up Joe and his bride, and they were delighted at our thoughtfulness, and in high spirits we headed Sandy in the direction of the docks. We caused quite a commotion when we drove into the shed alongside the ship. Everything would have gone off fine, I think, if the captain had not decided to blow the ship's whistle at that moment. The blast frightened old Sandy out of his wits, and looking for escape, he saw a cargo gangplank and headed straight for it. The next thing we realized, the whole lot of us, including the cab and Sandy, were inside the ship.

We might have all sailed for Bermuda, except that Sandy's owner and the police arrived at that moment, and we thought it best to leave. Of course, Joe, the bridegroom, couldn't leave, and it was said later that he had a hard time explaining to the police.

So I went to look for Sandy yesterday. But Sandy, like the rest of my youth, had passed away.

who broke into tears when I recalled the thick pea soup and the pig's knuckles. So I went out looking for this horse. Sandy, I used to pass Sandy every day on my way to work, and he always gave me a smile, and then one night a friend of ours got married. (I don't mean he was a friend of Sandy's. He was one of the newspaper crowd that used to gather in the place that once served pea soup and pig's knuckles.)

Out At 65?

Winnipeg Free Press

Writing in the Canadian Unionist, Mr. A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Congress of Labor, denounces as uneconomic and wicked the theory that all workers should be forced to retire at the age of 65.

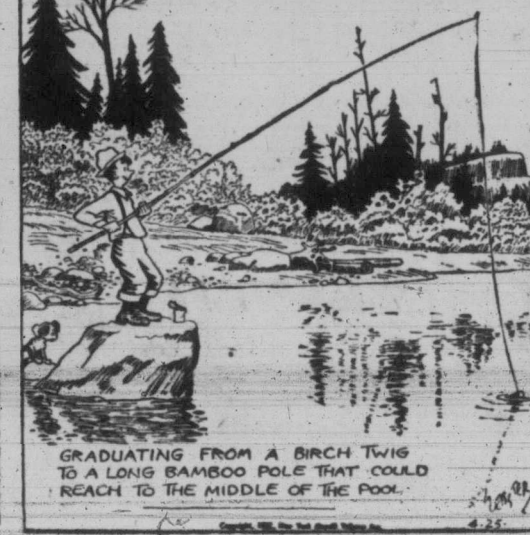

"The difference between establishing a right to retire at 65, or even earlier in life, and forced retirement regardless of circumstances, is the difference between freedom with security and compulsion of a most obnoxious character," Mr. Mosher says.

It should not be necessary for Mr. Mosher or anyone else to cite such patent mathematical facts. Nevertheless the illusion that the retirement of workers at a fixed age will somehow enrich those who remain at work has been so widely accepted in North America that it requires refutation.

Taxes

Toronto Globe and Mail

A pioneer company, completing its first full year of operation, reported $3.58 million under the heading of income tax—against $2.26 million under the heading of operating expenses. In other words, it cost this company more to pay off the tax collector than to run its business.

With that kind of set-up, how many investors will put their money into the development work that is needed throughout Canada, and particularly in Western Canada?

EASTER EGG HUNT

On behalf of the Robert Burns McKicking Chapter, I.O.G.E., I would like to publicly thank all those concerned for the success of the recent annual Easter egg hunt held by our chapter.

A sum of approximately $125 was realized from the affair which will go towards the chapter's funds for helping the blind, also helping the education of war veterans' children unable to further their education through lack of funds.

My sincere thanks to last, but not least, the mothers who brought all the lovely children, who we hope enjoyed the afternoon.

"RIGHT TO DISSENT"

To be required to take an oath and to kiss the Bible is an insulting Roman innovation to any honest British citizen whose word is his bond.

Again, does it matter if that honest citizen takes one oath or a dozen, or whether in so doing he kisses the Bible or a lump of concrete? Where is the difference?

A man affirms or swears to what he believes, whether he accepts the theory of the Trinity or doesn't.

The writer incidentally does not believe in that theory, which apparently did not come into being until some 300 years after Jesus was crucified, or hung upon a tree. It would be interesting to know what Jesus would think of it were He alive now.

INNUENDOES

The recent article by your Ottawa correspondent, Brian O'Leary, to the effect that George Drew, the federal leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, had refused to participate in the forthcoming provincial election, contains a number of mischievous innuendoes.

The gist of the article would appear to be that Mr. Drew had refused requests made to him to do so. Such, of course, could not be the fact, and it has never been the custom, in my memory at least, for the federal leaders of either of the two major parties to take part in provincial elections.

I think you will agree that the late Right Honourable W. L. Mackenzie King never at any time participated in a provincial election in British Columbia, nor would it be expected that the Prime Minister, as the federal leader of the Liberal Party, would do so. In fact it is not the custom for any federal member of parliament even to take part in a provincial election. Mr. Mayhew for instance has never done so.

The case of General Peckares is exceptional, but the reasons for his appearances have been two-fold, first it has given him an opportunity to meet his own constituents in Nanaimo riding, which includes several provincial constituencies, and secondly, as president of the British Columbia Progressive Conservative Association he is head of the party organization within British Columbia, concerned both with federal and provincial matters as they arise, including provincial elections.

Your correspondent should, in my opinion, "brush up" on the past before he jumps to false conclusions about the present.

Ups and Downs

By BRIAN TOBIN

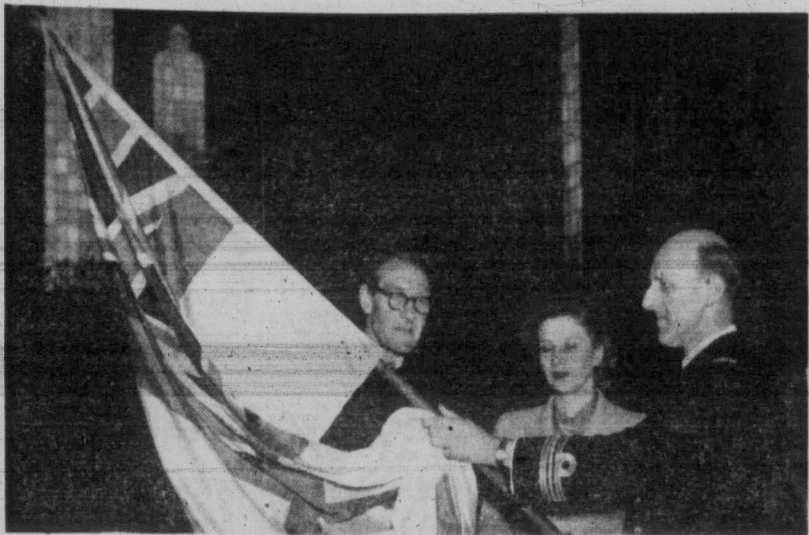

"THE fable," said the Elevator Man, "of the boy who cried wolf is an old one. But it still keeps cropping up. Only the other day, down in California, a fella was called at 1 a.m. by the police and told the burglar alarm on his store was ringing. Turn it off and forget it," he told them, sleepily. "It's gone off that way three times before."

Next day he found thieves had made off with $260 in cash and $500 worth of goods. The alarm you don't answer may prove to be the most alarming. Going down!

"You begin to wonder," said the Elevator Man, "whether we may not be like that fella. All over the world alarm bells are going off. Some are new, some we've heard many a time before. And the tendency is to turn over and go to sleep again. Every budget is an alarm bell that the state is taking over more of our income, more and more of our lives. That rang before," we say, "and nothing much happened." We hear an appeal to relieve hunger or illness or a shortage of blood bank supplies. "Why," we think, "that's what they said last time. Turn it off." We hear of an injustice, an oppression, a cruelty. "Not my concern," we say, "it's been going on since the world began." And the bells ring on. Lower main!

"Fortunately," said the Elevator Man, "everybody doesn't give that response. A few are like firemen, who jump at the first going. And a lot get going when they see the good example, and answer the second alarm. But there's many a one who merely turns over, like the California storekeeper. And sometimes it's only years later that he finds he's been robbed. Robbed of a liberty, robbed of wealth, robbed of the satisfaction of doing a good deed. Ears trained to deafness, minds trained to blindness. They're like the host who was showing a guest to his room in the haunted house. If you hear any noise in the night, old man, it's probably only the rats. At least we always try to think so!"

JETS APPROACHING LOW RUNNING COST

Limited commercial operation of jet aircraft will begin this year, but fully satisfactory models will not be available until 1957, A. E. Raymond, vice-president of Douglas Aircraft Company, told the Air Industries and Transport Association of Canada at the semi-annual banquet in Empress Hotel Thursday evening.

When the U.S.-built jet transports do enter commercial service, they will add the essential attributes of low operating cost and long range to the greater speed and comfort of turbine-driven aircraft, he added.

"The future of transport aircraft design is not easy to forecast right now," Mr. Raymond said. "It is more difficult than ever because so many influences are at work, constantly changing in themselves or in relation to each other."

"Jets will go into commercial service in a small way this year. Next year, or the year after, more efficient axial-type engines will be in service. By 1957 we may expect still more powerful, more efficient engines in commercial service. The 1957 engines will be able to get operating costs down to present-day values."

ISLAND DIGEST

DUNCAN, April 25—With approval by North Cowichan Council of District 65 School Board estimates, the last obstacle in the way of construction of a new Somers school has been removed.

The school will cost $40,000, of which North Cowichan's share will be $5,444.

This item remained of a long list of contentious extraordinary expenditures in the school board estimates that have been under review in the area for two months.

NANAIMO, April 25—Officers installed by Nanaimo Toastmasters' Club at a dinner in Lantzville Supper Club were Ray Buck, president; Jack Harrison, vice-president; Leslie Corfield, secretary-treasurer; and Stan Carlson, sergeant-at-arms. Installing officer was William Gizard, Victoria.

COURTENAY, April 25—Red Cross Society has exceeded its quota of $4,000 by $92, and one district has not yet reported. Cumberland has exceeded its $500 objective by 60 per cent, and contributions are still being made.

NANAIMO, April 25—Mina Jane Cowan, 11, of Princess Anne School, has been chosen May Queen for the annual May 24 celebration. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Cowan, Brechin Hill Road.

LADYSMITH, April 25—Road program of the lower section of the city will be slowed down until a "Trans-Canada Highway route" has been assured. It was announced at the regular meeting of the city council.

DUNCAN, April 25—A flat "no" was the answer given by District 65 School Board to two queries regarding salaries paid school officials. They were made by Trustee George E. Bonner, and William Dobson, newspaper editor.

DUNCAN, April 25—W. L. Matthews has been elected president of Duncan Rotary Club, with A. H. Plows vice-president; G. A. Holliday, secretary; and Robin Piers, treasurer. Directors in clude Jack Dobson, Edward L. Robson, James Hirst and Alex Jack.

DUNCAN, April 25—Old stringers and beams from the White Bridge at Duncan, now being replaced by a steel and concrete structure, will be used to build a stage, 30 by 70 feet, for the Dominion Day carnival.

A District 65 School Board meeting to review plans and specifications of the school was cancelled in order to give the P.T.A. of the district a chance to recommend a site in writing.

A 78-year-old Indian died Wednesday night at Chemunus General Hospital from multiple injuries received when he was struck by a car April 18.

Dead is David Johnnie, of No. 10 Indian Reserve, Westholme. R.C.M.P. said the driver of the car was Herbert Debie, of Chemunus.

An autopsy was conducted today and an inquest is set for this afternoon.

Government Attorneys Work to Back Truman's Seizure of Steel Industry

WASHINGTON, April 25 (UP)—Government attorneys mustered an array of precedents today in an effort to convince Federal Judge David A. Pine that he has "no power" to nullify President Truman's seizure of the steel industry.

Pine ordered Assistant Attorney General Holmes, Baltimore, to appear in court this morning and cite specific cases to support the administration's argument that the federal judiciary cannot issue an injunction against the chief executive.

The judge turned down Baldwin's plea for a week's delay to assemble the material. Pine said he intends to act swiftly on the petition of five big steel companies for an injunction. He defined the issue as whether the President has unlimited emergency powers which cannot be circumscribed by court action.

When Baldwin asserted that the courts cannot nullify the order by which Mr. Truman had Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer take over the steel mills, Pine retorted:

"If the President empowered Sawyer to take you into custody and execute you, you'd have no power to enjoin him."

Steel industry attorneys, feeling they had won at least a tactical victory, prepared rebuttal arguments to the government's case that was due for completion today.

The steel companies asked Pine to do one of two things:

1. Grant an injunction wiping out the seizure and returning the steel mills to their owners.
2. If that decision requires extensive study, grant an immediate injunction requiring Sawyer to maintain the status quo—prohibiting him from putting into effect a wage increase, changes in working conditions or the union shop. It has been reported that Sawyer intends to grant the C.I.O. United Steelworkers a "package" increase of about 18 cents an hour.

City Officer In Group Due Back From War

Among 116 soldiers of the Canadian 25th Special Brigade in Korea returning to Seattle from the Korean battlefield Saturday afternoon is Capt. Robert M. Hemmingsen, 1200 Basil, Victoria.

Also aboard the trooper, which will dock at 2:30 p.m., is Lieut. Maxwell D. Poyntz, Duncan.

After going through U.S. customs, the soldiers will be taken to Vancouver by bus. Six of the men in the B.C. group are from Vancouver.

Capt. Hemmingsen left Fort Lewis with the bulk of the 25th brigade a year ago this month. He is with the 2nd Royal Canadian Horse Artillery.

Awaiting his return are his wife, Margery, and his two sons, Randy, aged six, and Matt, two.

A member of the permanent army, Capt. Hemmingsen will move from here to Camp Shilo, Man., where he will be based following leave. The whole family will make the move.

B.C. Building Workers Fear U.S. 'Invasion'

VANCOUVER, April 25 (CP)—The Vancouver Building Trades Council (A.F.L.) Thursday asked federal immigration authorities to investigate what it fears to be "mass invasion" of British Columbia construction jobs by American workers.

The council, representing the major unions in construction, including carpenters, plumbers, equipment operators and laborers, said that American workers are filling jobs that local workers can do.

It mentioned especially construction work on the Aluminum Company of Canada's multi-million dollar project in northern B.C. and the oil pipeline project from Alberta to B.C.

"This invasion has not only increased since large American construction firms have gobbled up more of the jobs, but it is creating dissension among Canadian workers," said H. W. Watts, council secretary.

B.C. M90's will be asked for their support in the protest by the union group and it will appeal to Trades and Labor Congress to push the protest in Ottawa.

"American personnel are coming to the jobs through the immigration department as foremen, superintendents and office staff, but many end up operating machines and are doing work that can be done by our local men," said Mr. Watts.

"In most cases these men are getting a higher rate than our wage scale calls for, and getting board and lodging and other concessions that are called for in the U.S. agreements."

PRAIRIE ROUND-UP

Diseased Cattle Shot By Police at Ormiston

REGINA, April 25 (CP)—Twenty-three animals were shot and buried in a huge pit late Thursday in the continuing effort to clear southern Saskatchewan of an outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease.

The animals, 22 cattle and one hog, were on an infected premises near Ormiston, 100 miles southwest of Regina, by road.

R.C.M.P. marksmen slaughtered the animals with high-powered rifles. The pit, on the farm where the infected animals were discovered, was dug Thursday. The slaughter was held up one day when the excavating machinery became bogged down on the way to the farm.

The outbreak of the disease was the first in Saskatchewan since March 8. It was discovered Friday, kept under observation, then confirmed Tuesday by federal officials.

Slaughter of the 23 animals adds to nearly 1,300 animals destroyed and buried in the federal-directed program since the announcement February 25 that foot-and-mouth disease had broken out in the Regina area.

the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry today celebrated the first anniversary of the Battle of Kapyong in which it was cited for gallantry by President Truman.

Lt.-Col. James R. (Big Jim) Stone, battalion commander, who returned with his men from Korea, planned to read the citation to unit members at a special parade. The unit now is undergoing paratroop training.

The battalion recently returned from Korea after nearly a year fighting the Communists.

Early Seeding

WINNIPEG, April 25 (CP)—Early wheat seeding has given farmers an important advantage over Race 15B rust, Dr. F. J. Greaney, director of Line Elevators Farm Service, said Thursday.

Dr. Greaney said early seeding three weeks in advance this year was by far the most important factor discouraging the rust in Western Canada this year in the absence of resistant wheat varieties.

Early seeding meant crops would mature earlier and become more resistant to rust spores and an early harvest before spores blew in from the south.

Unemployment Said Higher Than Announced

Jobless Count Not Complete, Is Charged

By GRATTON O'LEARY
Times Ottawa Representative

OTTAWA, April 25—Canada's two big labor bosses said today unemployment across the country was actually higher than the government said it was. Labor Minister Gregg announced today unemployment stood at 377,700 on April 10, but added there was evidence the unemployment peak has been passed. C.C.L. president A.R. Mosher said actual unemployment was "always higher" than the figures announced periodically by the government.

Percy Bengough, T.L.C. head, agreed. He said Gregg's figures "were on the low side because the government hasn't got a complete record of all those unemployed."

Neither of the two labor bosses would venture a guess at the real number of Canada's jobless. But both had something to say on Gregg's statement that the unemployment peak has been passed.

Bengough snorted, "We should certainly hope so." But Mosher was more critical. He said, "If the peak hasn't been reached by this time, if some major drop is not in sight now, then the country is going to be in a very bad way in a very short time."

Gregg's figures showed that British Columbia's position had improved slightly from what it was on March 13. By mid-April B.C.'s jobless numbered 39,400, down 5,000 from a month earlier. Unemployment in Victoria had dropped 304 during the March-April period to the 2,437 mark on April 10. It also declined in Vancouver to 19,744, a 1,437 drop from a month earlier, and in New Westminster by 774 to the 4,832 mark. Renewed activity in agriculture, construction, lumbering and transportation in the four western provinces was responsible for a marked upswing in employment there. "Some difficulty was even being experienced in British Columbia," Gregg said, "in finding tunnelmen and heavy equipment operators for the aluminum development in that province."

The over-all picture in Canada would have been brighter, he added, if the decline in unemployment recorded in Ontario and our western provinces had not been offset by increases in Quebec and the four Maritime provinces.

Nevada Sands Melted Under Atomic Blast

WASHINGTON, April 25 (UP)—Aired House members reported Wednesday that the "big shot" atomic blast in Nevada melted the desert sands over a radius of 500 yards from ground zero.

They said the heat generated by the test explosion Tuesday was so intense that sagebrush was set afire three miles away from the point directly under the bursting A-bomb, or ground zero.

Rep. Melvin Price (D-Ill.), a member of the joint congressional atomic committee and one of five House members who watched the Yucca Flat explosion from a neck-high trench three and a half miles from the target, said one building believed in a "safe" zone was burned to the ground.

He estimated it was more than two miles from ground zero. Rep. Olin E. Teague (D-Tex.) said the same blast here "would practically have burned Washington to the ground."

Ald. Mrs. Christie Loses Battle For Gorge Nursing Home Repair Cost

Ald. Margaret Christie's one-woman fight to get $150,000 earmarked for the Gorge Road Nursing Home addition failed at city council meeting Thursday.

Council put the matter over for discussion during the budget meeting next week. Ald. Christie registered a loud "no" to the move for tabling.

She wanted the city to put up its one-third from money received from sale of city properties.

Dennis Young, comptroller, stated only $82,500 would be left from the land sale fund of $207,000 after arena and other capital expenditure commitments were met.

He explained some $60,000 was already earmarked for work on the Memorial Arena and another $68,000 in the provisional budget for such capital expenditures as sewers and water mains.

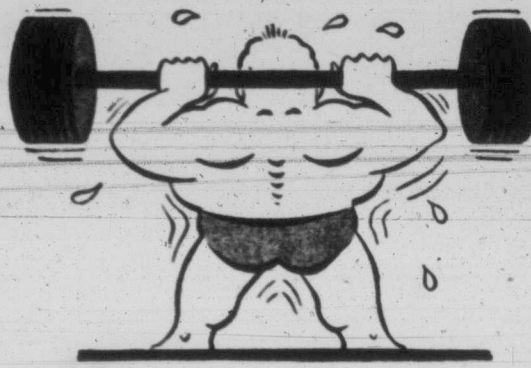

Mayor Claude Harrison saw the problem as the nursing home versus arena repairs. Council was advised that if it went ahead and earmarked the $150,000 out of the fund Thursday it would up the provisional budget by an additional $68,000 or over one mill.

Ald. Christie stressed need for the 100-bed addition and stated the city had to put up its one-third before the provincial and federal governments would contribute.

She said present cost per patient per day in the nursing home is 60 cents to the city. Cost to the city for patients housed in the provincial infirmary is 100 cents.

A Well-Oiled Soccer Machine

This wheel of fortune has been put together by the 11 heads which go to make up the John Oliver High School soccer team, which will meet Mount View High School for the B.C. high school soccer championship at Windsor Park Saturday at 2:30. From all reports and their past record this season, the Vancouver squad will provide strong competition for the local squad. Reading clockwise from the bottom, they are: Ed Wild, Clive Hughes, Kerry Parsons, Harvey Rosenberg, Bill Johnston, Ed Dewar, Bill Steinman, Pat O'Brien, Barry Saxon, Blair Wilkinson and Jack Milne.

IT'S MY VIEW

By BILL WALKER, Sports Editor

SASKATOON—It's history now, the Pacific Coast Hockey League season. Saskatoon Quakers are the new champions, the Johnny-come-latelys to the league from the Western Canada Senior League.

There was doubt about Saskatoon at the beginning of the season—doubt that they would make both ends meet financially. And there's still doubt that they did, though club officials here deny it.

The Quakers, playoff champions of the senior amateur circuit last year, and with eight holdovers from that club, won it all and they won it fairly by defeating the defending champion Cougars.

Cougar Roger Leger gave the credit for the Cougars' great showing to the Kid Line. He wanted this pointed out specifically before he bade farewell here Thursday afternoon. "The Kid Line was the best line on the ice," said Roger, "and Reg Abbott played twice as well in the playoffs as he played during the season."

Roger also wanted the fans in Victoria and the Cougar Booster Club to know that he has a great deal of respect for them. "I made a lot of good friends in Victoria," he said, "and I'm leaving this year much happier than I left last year." He didn't enlarge on this statement.

Giving Thought to the Future

Ernie Roche hopes he'll be back with the Cougars next year. So do the kids if they don't get a crack at bigger things. Doug Anderson has a two-year contract with Cincinnati and despite his love for Edmonton enjoyed his stay on the coast.

He is another possibility for next year if the Cougars renew their working agreement with Montreal Canadiens. And according to general manager Fred Hutchinson there is nothing to preclude such a possibility of a change in affiliation from the last two years. The agreement will be discussed in June at the annual meeting of the National Hockey League.

Down here the rumor is still prevalent that Regina will definitely make an application for entry into the Coast League next year.

Then there's Max Bentley, the veteran centre of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Bentley confirmed the fact that he has not signed his 1952-53 contract with the Maple Leafs. "I would certainly like to get into the Coast League," Bentley said, "if not this year, next year."

Asked if he was interested in the Seattle club, Bentley said, "not as much now as we (Doug and I) were a couple of years ago. The main trouble," continued Max, "is that Conny Smythe may not let me go this year. That's why I have made no definite plans. But I'm definitely interested in getting a coaching job out here. Where it will be, I don't know, but I'll get the best deal possible, when and if the opportunity arises."

Bentley added the leading question "I suppose you guys out in Victoria are all fixed for a coach next year?" then smiled. Hmmm...

Max Bentley Impressed With P.C.H.L.

Bentley was impressed by the calibre of play in the P.C.H.L. and didn't think there was too much difference between the Quakers and Cougars, although admitting naturally he was pulling for his brother Doug.

Meanwhile, the Cougars' management is as silent as Saskatoon on Sunday afternoon over next year's plans.

There were many highlights during the season which until the final few hectic weeks was a disappointing one. Though most of the thrills came in the playoffs, Eddie Dorohoy's bid for a repeat scoring title and Roger Leger's selection as all-star defenseman for the second straight year topped the season's activities.

Then came the semifinal series with the Royals and with it—those overtime games... Les Hickey's disputed goal and the rucis which followed... Reg Abbott's game-winner in overtime in Victoria... Jerry Cotnoir's goal-tending battles with Lucien Dethene... The Cougars' victory... The reception at the airport by the fans.

And finally the Saskatoon series... The Quakers overwhelming favorites... Cotnoir against Worsley... Doug Bentley... Murray Parker's two goals, his first in two years... The Kid Line... The Cougars down but not out until the final whistle had blown... Hickey again on a disputed goal... The bush league announcement at Saskatoon about the cup presentation before the game was over... Then bedlam in Saskatoon as the Quakers won... It was a great season, after all...

MONSTER BASEBALL RALLY STARTS SEASON SUNDAY

Victoria Amateur Baseball Association will hold a giant rally of all minor baseball players at Athletic Park Sunday commencing at 2 to usher in baseball in Victoria for the 1952 season.

The rally is being held for the purpose of organizing teams for boys in the two minor categories of 18 and under and 15 and under. The association wishes all players, coaches, managers and persons interested in amateur baseball to attend the rally.

The association hopes to assist the Victoria Athletic Baseball Booster Club in its official welcome of the Victoria Tyees in the opening ceremonies Tuesday. Registration forms for all youngsters interested in playing minor ball this spring may be obtained at the T. Eaton Company sporting goods department.

BACK TO OLD LINE-UP

United Determined to Take Victory Saturday

Victoria United has gone right down to the wire, and to get at least a tie for first-place honors in the Coast Soccer League, must win in their game against Vancouver City at Brockton Point Saturday.

If they win, they will have 15 points, and would have eliminated New Westminster Royals, but with four games still left, Vancouver Firefighters could still gain a tie with the local club.

Cougar Wallace Milligan wants no less than a win, and in hopes that he will have a victory, is reverting back to his former line-up.

On the forward line, Cedric Robb and Bernie Clarkson will play the wings, with Stan Bob and Den McGee on the insides and Milligan at his old centre position. Sid Robbins will centre brother Jack and John Pickburn on the half-line, while Bill Hope and Joe Robbins will be fullbacks and Bill McAllister, goalie.

BILL HOPE... fullback strength.

Colgate Meets Lineham in Quarter-Final

Ted Colgate, who surprisingly upset defending champion Bob Fleming last week, will meet Harold Lineham in the quarter-final round of the Vancouver Island Match Play Open golf tournament, sponsored by C.I.V.I. at the Victoria Golf Club Sunday morning.

Ron McLeod, who upset medalist Laurie Kerr in the second round, will meet T.A. Harris.

In other championship flight matches, Bob Morrison will meet John Merriman and Joe Pryke will face Don Gowan.

Draw and starting times follow:

11:00—R. McLeod vs. T.A. Harris.
11:00—B. Morrison vs. J. Merriman.

LADY LUCK HAS A HAND AT MT. VIEW

What Makes a Soccer Team?

By BILL HOLLAND

If ever a man believed in Lady Luck and good fortune it is Ernie Livesey, coach of Mount View High School's representative soccer team.

If it hadn't been for Lady Luck and perhaps a little experimenting by Livesey and his associates, it is possible the prowess of Gene Pednault and Allan Orr would never have been discovered.

Their findings as a terrific goalie and left winger, respectively, came about quite by accident, but since then have helped to pave the way to Mount View's winning the coveted Colist Cup, and may possibly be the deciding factors in their provincial championship match against John Oliver High School at Windsor Park Saturday.

Pednault is the biggest find in Mount View's soccer world this season, and perhaps for many seasons.

The biggest need of the Mount View soccer lineup at the beginning of this season was a good, reliable goalie. George Wilmot, the team captain, asked his best friend, Pednault, to make a try for the vacant position. Pednault did try for the job, and as history shows, made it with great success.

TOOK A CHANCE

Why Wilmot asked his pal to make a bid for the goalkeeping position no one knows, for Pednault had not been within 10 feet of a soccer ball since he last played in Grade V.

Left-winger Allan Orr started out with the team this year as a goalie, but when the little leprechauns put Pednault between the uprights, Livesey decided to experiment, and put Orr in the left-wing spot, a position that he had never played before.

The coach's hunch struck home and Orr proved a natural for the position and has been improving with every game.

Steadiest player on the team is captain George Wilmot. According to Livesey, Wilmot, who is a defenseman, is not spectacular but is swift and gives the opposing forwards little chance to get the jump on the ball.

Centre Gary Crowe is another player who rates highly in senior soccer circles.

This is Crowe's second year at Mount View and his first year on the senior squad. Last year he played on the junior team that remained unbeaten and unscored upon throughout the season. This year he was high scorer.

Abtar Singh, right-winger, is another whose play in Saturday's contest will be a deciding factor.

Singh is described by Livesey as the best ball handler on the squad. He is a hard checker and knows how to use his feet to great advantage. When on the defensive, he plays back deep with the fullbacks and is great in feeding the forwards.

Those are some of the stars of Mount View High School's squad, but as Livesey says, it's teamwork that wins a game, and Mount View will be putting their teamwork to the test when they meet the mainland champions. Game time is 2:30.

Don't Tell Anyone But We've Got a Ball Team

Bats Boom as Tyees Win Third Straight Victory

The Western International League season is just three days old and the Victoria Tyees, literally still wearing their three-corner pants, are the talk of the town.

Thursday night the Tyees continued to delight local fans by taking their third straight win from Yakima Bears, this by a 16-8 count.

From the looks of the first and third games, Tyees' pitching may have a few kinks to be ironed out, but when the hurling has sagged the batters have come through.

The Tyees came across with 16 hits Thursday night, but also came up with four errors. In the three-game series, the Tyees scored 35 runs on 39 base hits.

In the 16-8 in the early innings, the Victoria club burst out in profusion like spring flowers for seven runs.

Yakima opened the scoring in the first inning with two runs off starting pitcher John Valerie. The Bears held the lead until the fourth inning, when the Tyees came to life, and on a single by Don Pries, a long double off the wall by Grady Glanville and a single by first baseman Chuck Abernathy, scored two runs to knot the count.

LEAD VANISHES

Tyees went ahead in the sixth on four bases on balls and four hits, one of them a three-run double by Pries.

In the bottom of the sixth, George Randolph came on to relieve Bill Wisneski, who had taken over for Valerie. Wisneski gave up two runs.

Tyees got back the two runs, with added interest, in the seventh. Abernathy was the first man up and filed out, but John Treese walked and Donley, the third Yakima pitcher, was called in. Donley walked Mike Martin and Ben Lorino singled home Treese for their 10th run. Luther Brannham singled and both Martin and Lorino scored when the ball got past outfielder Gerry Zuvella.

Then to top off the power performance, player-manager Cec Garriott walloped a 400-foot two-run homer over the centrefield fence to advance the score to 14-8.

TWO IN NINTH

Tyees wound up their scoring and the game in the ninth inning when Pries walked and Brannham and Moniz came through for successive singles. Garriott and Gladstone both hit outfield flies to score the final runs.

At Spokane, the Indians won their third straight game, winning 5-1 from Salem behind the three-hit pitching of Frank Chase.

At Wenatchee, the Vancouver Capilanos garnered 17 hits to trounce the Chiefs 12-2. Big gun for the Caps was John Ritchey, who came through with two triples, a double and a single good for three runs. Lewiston Broncs also defeated Tri-City 12-6 in a wild game that saw the Broncs get seven bases on balls in the sixth inning.

Victoria 16, Yakima 8, 9-3.
Yakima 8, Salem 3, 8-3.
Lorino (6) and Martin (2) Del Santo, Blites (6). Donley (7), Dials (7) and Donahue.

BAKER IN BOXLA HASSLE

Angry at Fine, Seeks Release

By DENNY BOYD

A deep rumble, emanating from the training camp of the Victoria Shamrocks this week has conveyed the unhappy news that Norm Baker has quit the club over a difference of opinion with coach Arnie Ferguson.

Baker told the Times Thursday that he had asked the Shamrock executive to give him his release. The dispute arose over a fine imposed on Baker by Ferguson for missing practices.

The fine was to be taken out of Baker's split given to all players at the conclusion of the playing season. Splits are decided upon by team vote. Players missing practices with out good reason were to have their shares docked.

Baker missed Monday night's practice because he was bowling with his wife in a spring league. He told Ferguson he would be unable to make Monday practices until bowling season ended.

Coach and player had it out Tuesday night with the result that Baker decided to pack up lacrosse.

FINAL ROAD TRIP OF SEASON

Cougars Make Long Trek Home

By BILL WALKER

Times Sports Editor

SASKATOON, April 25.—Victoria Cougars, the cinderella kids for whom the midnight hour tolled with defeat here in the Pacific Coast Hockey League finals Wednesday night, left Saskatoon early today on the return leg of their final road trip of the season.

The C.N.R. transcontinental train bearing the remnants of the team towards the coast was three hours late leaving the home of the Quakers, new P.C.H.L. playoff champions, and it is touch and go if connections can be made for the C.P.R. boat trip to the island Saturday.

Sixteen in all made up the party that boarded the special tourist coach, the number including press and radio, general manager Fred Hutchinson, owner Lester Patrick and trainer George Wilkinson.

Players who will return to the more pass to make this season—the ring.

Frampton and Cotnoir plan to leave for their homes in eastern Canada as soon as possible. Immediate plans of the others are not known, except that in most cases a few weeks' holiday are planned prior to the return to the lunch bucket brigade for the summer months.

The King George Hotel headquarters Thursday was like old folks' week for the players. Visiting firemen were Jim Shirley, Wimpy Jones, Vic Lynn, Ralph Almas and Chuck Rayner, among others.

And at the final check-out time of 9 p.m. the hotel management breathed its first sigh of relief in approximately 22 hours as unnatural stillness hung over the lobby.

On the OUTDOOR FRONT

By ROY THORSEN

Lower island trap and skeet shooters have a top-ranking program of championship tournaments for this summer.

The clay-pigeon championship schedule will open with the Vancouver Island trap championship on the Duncan Elks' grounds off Lake Cowichan Road, June 8. Shooting will start at 10 and continue throughout the day, a heavy scattergun contingent expected from the Victoria-District area.

This will be followed by a bang-up two-day program on the local front—at the Victoria Gun Club's Albert Head Road skeet-trapshooting grounds on the weekend of July 5 and 6.

This will be a double-title shoot. The 5th will be devoted to the Vancouver Island skeet championships, reports Secretary Howard Damasko. The grounds the following day will be the scene of the province's biggest shoot—the B.C. Trap Championship Tournament.

The club is now registered with the Pacific International Trap Association "and this should mean that more American trap shooters will be attracted here as their scores will be credited to them on the P.I.T.A. files," an official predicted. The club, along with the North-Saanich Rod and Gun Club and the Victoria Fish and Game Protective Association are now on P.I.T.A. strength. Affiliation with the B.C.R.A. has been dropped.

Crawfish anglers should take note of this... because this live bait has been put on the illegal lure list, according to the newest synopsis of the sport-fishing regulations now available at sporting goods stores.

The regulations also prohibit the use of live fish for bait. Roger Monteith and several other old-timer freshwater fishermen have been strongly opposed to crawfish bait. "It's a terrific killer," said Monteith... and apparently the game department sees eye to eye with them on that point and have banned it.

These Were the Good Old Days

By the way, there was a time when 15 trout could be taken in tidal waters. The new regulations limit the catch to the same as in non-tidal waters, 12 a day. Monteith pointed out.

The recent spell of hot weather did not improve trout fishing. It caused the heavy snow in the hinterland to melt "and this snow-water pouring into lake and stream is a damper on fishing," said Monteith.

From reports reaching both him and Stan Williams, the overall freshwater fishing now is only considered "fair." However, with drier days to hold back the fast run-off, the boys who know the game best look for better sport.

Information reaching both of these sporting goods men indicates that Lower Campbell Lake is not "on" as yet, but they expect it to really produce for the anglers within a week. Jack McLaughlin, though, bagged his limit up there last week-end. Fish went up to 2½ pounds.

Lots of fish in Cowichan River at the present time, but generally hard to catch. Monteith got his limit on a large No. 6 yellow-bellied Haggard wet fly a week ago Wednesday.

Springers are starting to show up in better numbers in Saanich Inlet, according to catches reported by boathouses this week. Top honors for the heavy-weight salmon taken goes to Hugh Hummily, angling out from Brentwood. It went 19 pounds. But that Hegin crew (this time Sophie and Lorne) took springs going 18½, 12½, 8½ and two smaller last Sunday using Wee Louie plug and a Wonder spoon at Goldstream end. Ernie Davies had a nice catch, 18½ and 4½-pound springs and two blues the same day.

Boatmen report best catches by anglers leaving from Brentwood have been in the evening, alone and Tom Mack spoons doing best. Fish were taken fishing fairly deep. There have also been some good morning takes.

Blues Still There But Not Hungry

"Blues are still in the inlet, but there hasn't been the big catches of the past made this week," Goldstream operators reported. They said most boats averaged two or three fish, the albacore appearing to be the best magnet for the salmon. Some blues are still being taken on the bucktail fly. It has been the best winter-spring fly-fishing year for salmon in the history of the inlet.

Catches in the inlet this week:

Brentwood—Ted Bull, Gordon Guest, 12 blues, two springs; Clarence Butler, one spring, two blues; Charlie Kaye, three blues, six bass; fishing with Claude Creed. T. Cohen, 10 blues, 10 bass; Harris Turner, eight blues, one jackspring; Creed got 14-fish spring and two blues Tuesday; also with Creed Thursday morning, Les Colby, Montana, and Doug Schindler, Seattle, took two small springs, two blues and one bass.

Goldstream end—Cliff Hegin with George Douglas, five springs (8, 6½, 4, 4½, 4 lbs.) and one blue; Mrs. E. Potter, Deer Park, Wash., five springs from 10½ to 4 lbs. and on another day 11½-lb. spring.

E. Potter, F. Thew, three jacks, four blues; R. Tull, William Jeddler (Edmonton), 15 blues; Frank Curtis, 11-lb. spring; H. W. Laird, six blues; Charlie Panting, 10½-lb. spring, four jacks, three blues; Mrs. C. Williams, Mrs. W. Silburn, nine blues; Fred Curie, Fat McLean, nine blues; S. Wiseman, 8½-lb. spring; O. Koller, 13-lb. spring; Tiny Richards, 8½-lb. spring, two blues; Jack Blake, one jack, four blues; A. C. Anderson, three springs around 8 lbs.; R. Howard, 15-lb. spring, one smaller.

Taylor Has His Worries

Students May Be Tough When Positions Filled

By LEON HALL

Gar Taylor, coach of Chinese Students of the Senior A Men's Softball League, is a little worried these days.

His club has potentialities if he could get everyone out to practice, but up to date he has three key positions that need to be bolstered.

His pitching staff has been cut down to one returner from last year, Jimmy Chan, and the pitcher didn't fare so well in the '51 season. Once he gains more control, Chan could be one of the best tossers in the loop.

Charlie MacKay, from Bluebird Cabs, has been out to practice, but he hasn't definitely stated he would remain with the Students.

A 17-year-old hurler from Nanaimo, Henry Wong, is slated to take his turn as a starter, but as yet is an unknown quantity. He pitched in the Senior B League at the Up-Island centre last year and won his share of games.

MAIN WORRIES

First base and catcher are the two other spots open on the team. Jimmy John should be able to cover the former position once he can turn out, but now that Gordy Chow has gained his release from the Students, Taylor will have to line up another catcher. Jack Allen, regular catcher from last year's Navy senior B team has signified his intention of turning out, but he will be away at sea when the season opens May 4.

Ed Lou and Bernie Sam have graduated to senior A from the T.A.C. team and they along with shortstop Don Robinson and third baseman Bung Derr will round out the infielders.

Last year's outfield will report intact, with Quinton Mar in left, Tom Derr at centre and Tofo Mar in right.

Students will iron out some of their kinks this Sunday afternoon when they meet Forest Products in an exhibition game at Central Park. Game time is 2:30.

Canada... and How

In the past 12 years Canada has seen the biggest industrial development of any nation in the world. Spark plug? American-born, 66-year-old Hon. C. D. Howe.

May Reader's Digest brings you the amazing story of Canada's "Minister for everything," so busy grasping the continent his wife once said, "Children, meet your father. I'm sure you've often heard me speak of him."

Bosox Babes Show Talent

Rookies Pave Way as Boston Downs Yankees

Those beautiful Browns are not the only surprising team in the American League. How about those upstart Boston Red Sox?

Lou Boudreau's youthful Sox have been knocking the stuffings out of the opposition right from the start, but it has been the tremendous surge of the once-lowly St. Louis Browns that has drawn all the attention.

It took a Brownie postponement to cast the spotlight on the comeback of Boston. The Red Sox hurled a "move over" challenge at the Browns Thursday by whipping the world champion New York Yankees 3-2 to sweep their two-game series.

It took the Red Sox 11 innings to do it but in the end they had their third consecutive victory stored away to run their season record to nine triumphs and only two losses. That actually put them a half game in front of the Browns. St. Louis, however, remained in first place percentage-wise. The Browns showed a 71.875 mark to Boston's 92.318.

In the day's only other activity, the Boston Braves overcame a 3-0 deficit with three rallies in the eighth and three more in the 10th to defeat New York Giants 6-3 at the Polo Grounds.

GAMES CANCELED

Rain and cold weather canceled all other games in the major leagues.

It was the Red Sox kiddie corps that paved the way for Boston's victory. Two successive bases on balls by relief pitcher Bob Kuzava provided the winning run but it was a single by freshman Sammy White that set up the tally.

The rookie catcher, who had homered for Boston's first run in the fifth, advanced to second on Dom DiMaggio's one-bagger and moved all the way around when Kuzava walked Jimmy Piersall and Billy Goodman.

Rookie pitcher Ivan Delock, who relieved starter Maurice McDermott in the 11th, earned his first major victory.

A bases-loaded double by rookie Ed Mathews in the 10th broke up a 3-3 tie and enabled the Braves to snap a three-game losing streak. Lew Burdette, who relieved starter Warren Spahn in the seventh, was credited with his second victory. Dave Koslo was the loser.

Starter Max Lanier of the Giants had a shutout until the eighth when Earl Torgeson homered with two out. A single by Sid Gordon, a walk to Will Marshall, a wild pitch and Walker Cooper's single tied the score at 3-3 and brought in Koslo.

With Quebec leading 3-1 in games, Beavers coach Johnny O'Flaherty would make no prediction about the fifth game here Saturday night. "We'll play them one at a time," he said.

Beavers' scoring spree, paced by Johnny Ubricco with two goals, caught the Quebec defense napping in the first period, and Aces never threatened ahead 3-0 after Saint John went ahead 3-0.

END OF THE TRAIL

Rugby Cup Series May Be Jackpot for Ellis

To Dick Ellis, playing coach of the Oak Bay Wanderers, Saturday's four-team series for the coveted Cowichan Cup could either mean a fairly tale windup to the long and arduous 1951-52 season or a hope that perhaps they'll do better next year.

The Cowichan Cup series, which means playing three games in one day, includes, besides Wanderers, two James Bay Athletic Association teams and Crusaders.

Starting at 2:30 at Macdonald Park, Wanderers play J.B.A.A. first division team on the upper pitch, while Crusaders and J.B.A.A. second division squad battle on the lower field. Winners of these games meet in the cup final at 3:15.

CROWNING ACHIEVEMENT

If Wanderers win the series, it will be a crowning achievement for Ellis. Wanderers have been the Cinderella squad this season and rose from the ranks of obscurity to the top of the totem pole.

They started the season in poor form. They lacked co-ordination and the will to work together. But after nights of practice they slowly developed into a functioning machine.

Their downfall was the fact they started clicking too late in the season, with the result that they drew a third-place lot in the final standings.

First-place honors went to Crusaders, but Wanderers, who at the season's end, were at their peak, defeated the league winners to take the playoffs and the Barnard Cup.

The playoff series will mark the end of this season and will, as Ellis, who is also president of the Victoria Rugby Union said recently, "... bring to a close one of the best seasons seen in many a year."

Sid Smith Wins Hockey's Good Conduct Award

MONTREAL, April 25 (BUP)—Sid Smith, 26-year-old Toronto Maple Leaf left winger who drew only three minor penalties during the 70-game National Hockey League campaign, today was named winner of the Lady Byng Trophy as the most gentlemanly player for the 1951-52 season.

With 18 sports writers and radio broadcasters—three from each N.H.L. city—voting—four three players on a 5-31 points basis, Smith received nine firsts, one second and three thirds for a total of 51 points.

Smith led Toronto, the most penalized team in the league last season, in scoring and his 37 points made him the fifth highest scorer in the circuit. He spent only six minutes in the penalty box.

The Lady Byng Trophy is given each year to the player "adjudged to have exhibited the best type of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct combined with a high standard of playing ability."

Len (Red) Kelly, Detroit Red Wing defenseman who won the award last year, was second with 27 points. Right wing Bill Mosienko of the Chicago Black Hawks and centre Don Raleigh of the New York Rangers tied for third with 23 each.

NO-HITTER FOR 12 INNINGS

Fate Cruel to Frisco Hurler

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25 (AP)—Elmer Singleton pitched no-hit, no-run ball for 12 innings Thursday night and stood on the threshold of baseball's hall of fame. Then—bang—three Sacramento singles in the 13th turned glory into a 1-0 nightmare defeat for the 31-year-old San Francisco right-hander.

For six innings of the Pacific Coast League game Singleton was flawless.

He walked two men in the seventh. A sacrifice moved them along. But Elmer, who couldn't win for Toronto Maple Leafs in the International League last season, engineered one of his seven strikeouts of the night and made the next man ground out.

He walked a man in the 10th, but that man was erased in a double play.

Meanwhile, Sacramento's Jess Flores, once with the Philadelphia Athletics, was turning back the Seals.

In the 13th, second-sacker Eddie Rockman singled—the first hit off Elmer. Quickly Al White and Johnny Ostrowski followed with singles off the tiring Elmer and Rockman scored.

BACK-STAGERS PRAISED

Three Costume Plays Features of Festival

By AUDREY ST. D. JOHNSON
Three costume plays ornamented the stage of the Victoria High School Thursday night continuing the week-long Southern Vancouver Island Drama Festival. Adjudicator Ian Dobbie, prefaced his remarks on the plays by complimenting the unseen, but essential and hard-working back-stage personnel. Good organization had been responsible for smooth-running programs each night, he said.

VICTORIA GUILD

"SUNDAY COSTS FIVE PERSONS"
By Josephine McGill
Presented by Victoria Theatre Guild
Director: R. V. James

Mr. Dobbie described this play as a "charming piece of nonsense." He said that it had been extremely well directed, commenting on the colorful scene, clever invention and touches of atmosphere.

The cast individually came in for high praise. "Fidel" was excellent in comedy timing and stylized movement. He commended "Salome" for a well-sustained comedy characterization and delivery of lines. On the whole, he said, it was a "very, very polished production."

DUNCAN U.C.F.P.U.

"GRAY BREAST"
By Jean Lee Latham
Presented by Duncan United Church
Young People's Union
Director: Don Cannell

The four actresses gave sincere performances in this charming play. Mr. Dobbie commented, "Set in an indefinite place and time, its theme concerns human values expressed through the characteristics of three generations of peasant women. The adjudicator felt that the production did not quite come off because the group was inexperienced. Nevertheless, he admired their courage in tackling a difficult subject and bringing to it so much genuine feeling and thought."

COLUMBINE CLUB

"WHITE ISLES"
By Roberta Sisson
Presented by the Columbine Club
Director: Vera Trueman

Here was a great temptation for the actors to consciously dramatize, Mr. Dobbie commented. This group had avoided that pitfall, however. He liked the play, even though there was some bad writing in it, "especially in consistency of characterization."

"Jessamyn" was a very insensitive performance, Mr. Dobbie thought. Her reactions were well handled, but her stage fall was inept and rather awkward.

"Marcia" was a nice, polished performance but needed stronger handling at the climax. "Dorcas" was a wonderful characterization and "Lucy" splendid in every way, Mr. Dobbie concluded.

Very fine intermission music was provided by two talented young pianists, Patricia Shakespeare and George Essihos.

The three plays to be seen tonight are: "The 728," presented by St. Luke's Players and written and directed by Flora K. Nicolson; "Campbell of Kilmohr," presented by the Cowichan Little Theatre Guild; and "Happy Journey," presented by St. Andrew's Cathedral Drama Club.

Following his adjudication of these plays, Mr. Dobbie will announce his choice of three plays for the Honor Performance, Saturday.

GENUINE SEA DOG Sub. Lieut. Alan Robertson will bring the real swaggers of the navy to his role as Capt. Doris Van Dumm in Victor Herbert's "Red Mill" being presented at the Royal Theatre May 15, 16 and 17 by the Victoria Gilbert & Sullivan Society. As the romantic sailor in the operetta, Alan elopes with the burgo-master's daughter Gretchen (Pauline Barnett) and sings such well-known numbers as "Moonbeams" and "Isle of Our Dreams."

ROCHESTER, Eng. (CP) — Mayor A. Anderson of this ancient Kent County city will leave in July for a tour of the world's 20-odd Rochester, including Rochester in Alberta and others in the United States and Australia.

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

Boss Johnson will have you know the financial principal involved in operating health insurance is essentially simple. When you gotta do, you gotta do.

Yesterday was both amusing AND confusing for the old hands on this newspaper.

The general impression in the city room was that at least 30 youngsters were milling around, but an actual count showed that only 12 of our Hi-Times boys and girls were on hand to help us get out the paper.

Our John Shaw, who acts as daddy to the Hi-Times kids, is sprouting several new grey hairs today, but the paper, somehow, got itself put together.

Most of us had a wonderful time with our enthusiastic helpers, and some of the stories the youngsters wrote are worthy of immortalizing.

I especially liked Bill Broadley's page one effort on the activities of the young staffers.

Bill, I believe, is a natural-born humorist, and I quote this paragraph to prove it:

Wrote Bill: "Pat Westwood, commenting on the early morning start, said she knew how farmers felt when they had to get up to milk the cows. She covered the City Hall where she met Mayor Harrison and other civic officials."

Any comment would be irrelevant and immaterial.

Summer seems to have arrived in Victoria (said he, with his fingers crossed), but in many parts of the world, spring is barely on its way.

So the following may be of help to those who need more than a calendar to tell them the time of the year.

How does one tell when spring is nigh?

Before the fields, the trees, the sky,

The swelling buds, the birds that sing,

Herald arrival of the spring?

Some claim a keen olfactory nerve

As spring's sure harbinger can serve;

That earthy odors make it clear

That joyous spring is almost here.

Still others claim the sense of sight

Brings them warm visions of delight,

And serves a never-failing token

To tell them winter's hold is broken.

My wife has yet another way.

Her epidermis can convey

Spring's nearness, surer than which—

She wakes up with spring cleaning itch.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

The Lake Cowichan Volunteer Fire Department was credited with a "good save" when it knocked down a fire in the village bowling alley at 4.10 this morning.

The fire damaged the front end of the building, the counter and other sections of that end of the building. There was also considerable water damage.

Second annual "sportsmen's rummage sale" will be held late this summer by the South Vancouver Island Rangers, Inc., at Luxton club grounds. The first sale last summer was a huge success with members and friends offering almost everything in the line of the sportsmen's goods.

The Hobby Show, sponsored by the Optimists Club at the Y.M.C.A., will show for the last time tonight. It was previously reported there would be an afternoon showing Saturday.

Mayor Claude L. Harrison, officially opened the third school to produce C.D. instructors at the headquarters on Cormorant Street this week. Twenty-five persons are enrolled in the new school.

The Women's Progressive Conservative Association of the B.C. executive will meet in Vancouver's Hotel Georgia on April 29 at 7.30 p.m. The meeting will be in Room 303.

Canadian Scottish Regt. (Princess Mary's) and Seaforth Highlanders "F" Companies—replacements for the 27th Infantry Brigade in Germany—will have a farewell smoker in Vancouver on the night of May 1.

They will leave about two weeks later for Aldershot, N.S., to join the Second Highland Battalion being formed to rotate with the First Battalion of the 27th overseas. Maj. S. E. Parker will represent Lt.-Col. Walter Mosedale at the smoker.

Senior Officers Attend Parade at Royal Roads

More than 60 cadets, from nearly every Canadian province and representing all three armed services, ended the first phase of their service careers at the Canadian Services College, Royal Roads, today.

Here for the traditional graduation ceremonies, slated to commence at 3 p.m., is Vice Adm. E. R. Mainguy, chief of naval staff; Rear Adm. W. B. Creery, flag officer, Pacific Coast; Air Vice-Marshal F. G. Wait, air member for personnel, air force headquarters, Ottawa; Rear Adm. Allen E. Smith, U.S.N., commandant, 13th Naval District; and senior navy, army and air force officers.

Admiral Smith will be the first senior U.S. Navy officer to attend a Royal Roads graduation. He is in Victoria today a courtesy call on Admiral Creery.

Cadet Wing Cmdr. J. A. Marshall of Alberta was cadet in charge of the parade.

$80,000,000 Mental Health Bill for 1960

Mental health may run up a bill of $80,000,000 by 1960 in British Columbia, Victoria Rotary Club was told Thursday by R. A. Pennington, deputy provincial secretary.

By 1960, he forecasts, approximately 8,000 B.C. citizens will be in mental hospitals, and in the interim about 18,000 will have been sufficiently mentally ill to require hospital care.

"Six cents of every provincial tax dollar is needed for treatment and care of the mentally ill," he said.

"Nearly one-quarter of B.C.'s civil servants are engaged in the treatment of the mentally ill, and their job is administration of a community greater in population than Nanaimo or Nelson."

"At any given moment, one person in every 200 of our population is in a hospital for the mentally ill."

New Varieties of Flowers on Show

Victoria gardeners will have a good opportunity to see some of the newer and better varieties of tulips and daffodils at the annual spring show of the Victoria Horticultural Society which opened at the Crystal Garden today.

There are all types of tulips on display as well as many other cut blooms. A striking attraction is the arrangements of polyanthus in bowls.

The organization, with a membership of over 450, has as its president W. J. Pym. Len Arnall is vice-president, and J. M. Clarke is secretary.

The show will be open tonight and all day Saturday.

Sidney Man Oldest Delegate

Oldest delegate at Liberal Party convention in Vancouver was James J. White, 83, of Sidney. He is pictured above with Arthur Ash, Liberal candidate in Saanich in the June 12 election. Mr. White said he has been "voting Liberal" since 1896.

Conventions Now 'Tame,' Says Vet.

By GORDON FORBES

Times Legislative Reporter

VANCOUVER, April 25

James J. White of Sidney was the oldest man to attend the Liberal Party convention here. He is 83, and "a better Liberal than ever."

Mr. White, who is a life member of the Saanich Liberal Association, quietly admits he came from a Tory family. "They'd turn over in their graves if they knew what a strong Liberal I am," the spry old gentleman said.

Modern day conventions? Oh, they are pretty tame compared to those in the old days," said Mr. White. "They were pretty robust in those days. He said, though, this year's convention was the biggest he has ever attended."

Mr. White was the first agent for the old Victoria and Sidney Railway. He was once campaign manager for W. B. McInnis, now a Vancouver magistrate. "You know, there's one thing that has impressed me with this convention," said the oldest delegate. "It's the number of women here. There were very few at conventions in the old days."

Mr. White was born in Ontario and came to Vancouver Island in 1892. "I still get a big kick out of it all," he concluded.

Two minors were fined $10 each in police court today for being in possession of liquor. Gerald K. Schrader, H.M.C.S. Beacon Hill, and Sohan Singh, 19, of 560 John, pleaded guilty to the charge.

Police reported Schrader had liquor in his possession at the Topper Cafe and the second youth was spotted with liquor at the Victoria Ballroom.

CAVALCADE LEAVES ON GOODWILL TOUR

By BURKE CAHILL, Times Business Editor

A cavalcade of cars headed by Mayor Claude Harrison assembled in front of the Victoria Publicity Bureau early today and took off on the first leg of an up-island "goodwill tour" designed to promote the tourist trade.

Sponsored by the tourist trade group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, under the chairmanship of Geoffrey Edgell, the members of the caravan will meet with up-island business groups at stops along the way.

Chambers of commerce and other business organizations at Shawnigan Lake, Cowichan Bay, Duncan, Chemainus, Ladysmith, Nanaimo, Parksville, Port Alberni, Courtenay and Campbell River will be on hand to greet the Victoria representatives.

Discussions and group meetings will be held where possible during the tour in order to trade ideas on tourist development for the good of Vancouver Island as a whole.

Both Mayor Harrison and E. G. Rowbottom, deputy minister of trade and industry for B.C., will deliver speeches on tourist development at main points of the tour.

At Duncan Bay, the touring representatives will be given an opportunity to inspect the big Elk Falls paper mill. At Port Alberni members of the caravan will halt for an overnight stop.

On Saturday the journey will be resumed in stages from town to town and meetings will be held with merchants and civic officials. The visitors will also have an opportunity to inspect the Quinsam ore development at Campbell River.

Yarrows Will Move At Navy's Request

Mainguy Says Expansion 'Surprisingly Sensible'

By MONTE ROBERTS

Plans to acquire Yarrow's No. 1 yard and extend Esquimalt naval base completely around the harbor from Dunze Head to the government graving dock are under active consideration by the Royal Canadian Navy.

This was confirmed today by Vice-Admiral E. R. Mainguy, O.B.E., C.D., chief of naval staff, in an interview here.

"It is not a definite decision as yet," he stated, "but we have acquired the No. 2 yard, and are discussing whether Yarrows will be invited to move their plants."

"It seems a surprisingly sensible plan," he added with a smile. "It would give us the full sweep around the harbor, right up to the government drydock, which would also be available for our use. Yarrows could operate next to the drydock."

Intake of men into the permanent force is just about keeping up with the acquisition of new ships in which to train them, he said.

At present, recruiting runs around 300 per month, and the navy showed a net gain last month of 290.

"We do not wish to take in men faster than we can train them, and the present rate of intake seems about right," he said.

"We are getting a very high standard of men. We are rejecting about 60 per cent of volunteers, so the 40 per cent we take are of the best."

Rumors that Canada may buy an aircraft carrier were explained in terms of the navy's training ship requirements.

Plans for development of Rocky Point call only for the installation of a magazine to remove the ammunition storage area farther from the centre of population. There is no intention to make Rocky Point a major naval base.

The present strength of the navy, he reported, stands at: R.C.N., 1,867 officers and 11,638 men; R.C.N. (reserve), 1,218 officers and 3,385 men. There are 476 Wrens, of which 28 are officers, and 1,432 cadets in university naval training divisions.

"The navy's principal job in a future war," Admiral Mainguy said, "will be anti-submarine operations in the North Atlantic. We are responsible, under N.A.T.O., for protection of our own coastal waters, including western coastal waters, and provision of ocean-going escorts for protection of convoys."

"The principal developments since the war have been the conversion of our destroyers to anti-submarine ships, the decision to build 14 destroyer escorts, and the establishment of aviation in our navy."

"About 1300 of our personnel are now directly concerned with naval aviation."

CITY AIRMEN WILL ATTEND INSPECTION

R.C.A.F. Will Air-Lift Unit To Sea Island

Close to 65 officers and other ranks of the local auxiliary air force radar warning squadron will be among the some 1,000 reserve personnel who will be part of an inspection parade at Sea Island Sunday.

Sgt. Ldr. P. D. P. (Pip) Holmes, in command of the local reserve air unit, said his men will be air-lifted to Vancouver for the inspection.

Buses to transport personnel to Patricia Bay will leave Balmoral House H.Q. at 6.30 and 7.30 a.m. Sunday. All wishing to make the trip should contact the orderly room immediately.

It is a parade before Air Vice-Marshal A. L. Japes, senior field commander of the R.C.A.F., of all auxiliary squadrons and other related units in Vancouver, New Westminster and Victoria. Parade will be in charge of Wing Cmdr. E. A. Alexander.

Participating will be 442 Squadron, the H.Q. training wing, 3005 Technical Training Unit, 2442 Squadron, auxiliary medical and intelligence units, all of Vancouver; 443 Squadron of New Westminster and the Victoria unit.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Ye Old Covered Wagon
Makes a China Comeback

By PENNY SAVER

(Any Bandwidth, Mr. View High School, found these bargains for you today.)
I'm sitting in front of an open window with the breeze gently blowing my papers away and my hair into my eyes. But I don't mind because I've just made a wonderful discovery! I've found a wonderful assortment of camisoles. There are lacy ones with dainty ribbons through the top, plain pastel ones and (Swiss) eye-let trimmed ones. They are simply perfect for wearing under sheer or nylon blouses. To make them even more perfect (if that is possible) they can be teamed up with matching half-slips.

There were also some inexpensive white novelty handbags to go with the light summer dresses that are making their annual appearance. In the line of purses were the three colored "shoe bags." These were made of soft chrome leather and come in a variety of shades. They are called shoe bags because, being made in three colors, they will match the suit and any colored accessories. And that is a penny-saver or my name isn't Penny Saver!

Brass Knockers—Not Knuckles

I was browsing in a little gift shop when some brass knockers (not brass knuckles) caught my eye. These were very attractive and selling at an attractive price too—only $1.50. They came in a variety of designs such as bells, and different types of dogs. Just think, you can have your peepie on your front door at all times and not worry about his shedding hair all over your clean furniture!

There is something about the dull gleam of brass that fascinates me. Brass boot match holders, bottle openers and matching corks were also worth admiring.

Something new in the line of cigarette boxes has been invented: The one that particularly fascinated me was a china covered wagon. The top comes off and a couple of spare wheels are provided to serve as ash trays. Quite unique, don't you think? Just the thing for that shower for your June bride friend.

Speaking of gifts—figurines are splendid. I found some lovely ones for only $1.50. If you collect bric-a-brac yourself, these would be ideal to add to your collection.

Six Resolutions Endorsed
By Canadian Daughters

During the three-day 16th annual convention of the Provincial Council of B.C. Canadian Daughters' League, six resolutions were endorsed.

They were: To request the government to remove the 3 per cent sales tax from children's shoes, clothing and textbooks. Also from soap, soap flakes and all cleaning compounds essential to cleanliness.

That they petition the federal government to proclaim that our country be known as "Canada"—the word "Dominion" has been questioned and other names suggested.

The "Canada" Medal—an award to any citizen, whether soldier or civilian, in recognition for meritorious services over and above the faithful performance of duty. It is Canada's only civilian award. This medal was created by the government in 1943, authorized in 1951, but never struck. Therefore, be it resolved, to ask the federal government to have this medal struck that it may be awarded.

That Canadian immigrants applying for citizenship be required to pass suitable examinations in the language and history of Canada.

That drives for financial support for worthy causes are becoming too frequent—we petition the proper authorities for some consolidation of these appeals.

Request to federal members and senators for early action for an authorization of a distinctly Canadian flag, and that the Weir version of "O Canada" be authorized as our national anthem.

ELECTIONS
New officers were named at the session yesterday afternoon in the Newstead Hall.

They are Mrs. H. R. Milburn, junior past president; Mrs. L. DeLuca, Cranbrook, president; Mrs. M. Hodgson, Vancouver, first vice-president; Mrs. V. Bliss, Vancouver, second; Mrs. A. Adams, Vancouver, chaplain; Mrs. T. McLean, Vancouver, secretary; Mrs. G. Jasper, Victoria, sergeant at arms; Mrs. R. Elliot, Courtenay, sentinel; Mrs. J. Cadman, Vancouver, pianist; Mrs. A. Holman, Vancouver, press; Mrs. M. Storey, Vancouver, treasurer; and Mrs. M. H. Shannon, North Vancouver, historian.

Conveners are Mrs. R. E. Woodman, Vancouver, laws and legislation; Mrs. G. Dalby, Courtenay, state of order; Mrs. M. Eberdeen, Cranbrook, finance; Mrs. C. Turner, Kamloops, credentials; Mrs. V. Willis, Vancouver, disputes and grievances; Mrs. H. G. Gardner, Victoria, education; Mrs. Niely, Vancouver, printing; Mrs. Hodgson, Vancouver, art gallery; Mrs. O. Clemenshaw, Vancouver, Canadian Association of Consumers; Mrs. Woodman, Vancouver, citizenship; and Mrs. W. H. Teels, Vancouver, racial discrimination investigation.

League to Sponsor
Talent Show Finals

At a recent meeting of Solarium Junior League, plans were completed for the talent show finals to be held at the Odeon Theatre Sunday at 9.

Doris Fielder, convenor, reported $2,043.23 was raised at the recent tag day, proceeds of which will aid crippled children. Booths will be set up by the league during the B.C. Products Fair, May 5 to 10.

Reports were read by Shirley Wallace and Betty Marr, conveners of Ravca Doll Show to be held in Douglas Room, Hudson's Bay Company, May 17 to 24.

Annual banquet will be held at the Monterey in June. Miss Shirley Hayhurst was sworn into the league by Audrey Monk and Mrs. Irene Carroll was presented to the gathered members.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

X-Ray, Chemicals Aids To Chronic Leukemia

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

The name for the disease called leukemia was originally proposed by the famous German pathologist, Virchow, more than 100 years ago. Translated it means "white blood." Of course, the blood does not turn completely white in leukemia, but there is a "whiteness" about it which is caused by the destruction of many normal red cells and their replacement by colorless cells, known as white cells or leukocytes.

Leukemia is really a condition in which the white cells have grown wild. Not only are there more white cells than there should be in leukemia, but also there are abnormal forms and kinds.

Under normal conditions there are between 5,000 to 10,000 white cells in a cubic millimeter of blood—a cubic millimeter, incidentally, is an extremely small quantity, but in leukemia, the number of white cells—normal and abnormal—rises to 30,000 or 40,000 and sometimes as high as 100,000 or more in a cubic millimeter.

There are several kinds of leukemia, named according to the type of cell which is predominant and whether the condition is acute or chronic. Regardless of the type, however, the cause of leukemia is not known, although many theories have been suggested.

In the rapid or acute case of leukemia, regardless of the type of cells involved, the body becomes overwhelmed with these abnormal leukocytes. The patient weakens rapidly. Bleeding may take place from the gums or into the skin, and the latter is usually pale and slightly yellowish looking.

In the slower or more chronic cases, enlargement of the lymph glands in the arm pits, groin, or neck may be the first sign of the disease. The spleen also is usually enlarged. Increasing fatigue is another common early sign.

The persons who discover a cure for leukemia should be highly honored. As things are today, however, a cure for the disease is not immediately in sight. Those who are afflicted with leukemia, especially the chronic varieties, can be helped temporarily in many cases by blood transfusion, by X-rays over the spleen or by certain kinds of arsenic preparations taken by mouth. Radioactive phosphorus, urethane, nitrogen mustard, ACTH and cortisone, and many other substances have been tried and may have a place in some cases. However, up to the present, no reliable method of cure has become available.

The only good thing that can be said about leukemia is that it is not more common. There is probably more danger of being hit by an automobile than there is of contracting leukemia.

Roof Repairs For Arena as Recommended

Repairs to roof of Memorial Arena will proceed as recommended by Swan, Rhodes & Wooster, the city's consulting engineers.

City council at its meeting Thursday approved the move, with Ald. Robert Macmillan dissenting after nearly an hour's debate.

The latter was teed off by Ald. Brent Murdoch's query: "How do we get into this mess?" Ald. Donald Smith asked that the engineers relieve the city of its commitments for roof repairs totaling $23,000 on grounds they did not call for tenders. This was not followed when City Solicitor Arthur Patton said the city could not go back on its commitments.

Ald. Murdoch reported a local roofer told him the job could be done for $7,000 less than the city contracted for, with a 15-year guarantee and a $10,000 bond.

At the same time a letter was read from Roy McConnell, 483 Linden, offering to do the job for $9,748.

Mayor Claude Harrison took issue with the report that the engineers advised the arena manager tender would be called on the roof and were not.

Ald. Macmillan asked that the engineers be requested to explain in a letter why they specified use of Insul-Mastic for the roof, gave only a five-year guarantee and why they stated tenders would be called but were not.

ACTIVE MEMBER

MEXICO CITY, April 25 (AP)—

Mexico is setting aside immigration laws for the 8,000 Rotarians expected here next month. The interior department said Wednesday an active membership card in International Rotary will be sufficient to enter Mexico. Normally a tourist card costing $3 is necessary. The world convention opens here May 25.

Thatcher Would Reduce Pensions For Well-To-Do to Slash Budget

OTTAWA, April 25 (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott has been told he can chop $315,000,000 off his peacetime-record budget of $1,500,000,000.

Ross Thatcher (C.C.F., Moose Jaw) advised the government in the Commons Thursday night that defense spending could be cut by $225,000,000 and money could be saved by such means as reducing old-age pensions and family allowances for the well-to-do and by postponing public works.

A 34-year-old hardware dealer who sometimes does not see eye-to-eye with the rest of his party, Mr. Thatcher found his social security and public works proposals challenged by some C.C.F. members as he spoke.

Later Joseph Noseworthy (C.C.F., York South), in a speech of his own in the budget debate, expressed belief that "in many respects" Mr. Thatcher was delivering his own opinions and not speaking C.C.F. policy.

Besides reductions in the $2,500,000,000 defense program, Mr. Thatcher suggested these economies for the current fiscal year: Old-age pensions and family allowances, $30,000,000; public works, $20,000; CBC shortwave broadcasts, $2,039,000; government publicity and printing, $4,000; statistical publications,

$1,000,000; reduction in civil service personnel, $20,000,000; centralized government purchasing, $10,000,000.

He listed, too, a number of miscellaneous items that might be reduced such as $500,000 for buying aluminum buckets for maple sugar producers and $7,143 apiece for seven gift doors for the United Nations headquarters at New York.

Saying peacetime taxes are too high, Mr. Thatcher said the government's spending program will take 21 cents out of every dollar earned and means an average of $320 in taxes for every person in the country.

He came into conflict with fellow-members of the C.C.F. when he suggested the universal pension of $40 a month and family allowances should not be paid to the wealthy.

When Justice Minister Garson asked if Mr. Thatcher would apply the means test to the baby bonus, Stanley Knowles (C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre) interjected: "Over my dead body!"

Mr. Thatcher said there is no need for pensions or family allowances to those earning more than $5,000, or perhaps $6,000.

William Clark Heads Rotarians

William R. Clark was elected president of Victoria Rotary Club at the election luncheon in Empress Hotel Thursday. He will be installed in July, succeeding George I. Warren.

Directors elected to two-year terms were T. M. Bradbury, S. H. Evans, Alfred Heaslip, and H. A. Johnston.

Mr. Clark has been a director of the club for three terms, and is at present chairman of the community projects committee, and vice-chairman of the community service group.

Motorcyclist Hurt In Crash With Car

Motorcyclist John W. Standbrook, 1536 Belcher, received a cut lip and abrasions Thursday night when he was in collision at Fernwood and Fort with a car driven by James Cavers, 30 Douglas.

Standbrook was treated at Naden Hospital.

INTERMISSION

When all hope gone, & faded the cup,
When the Cougars were thru & all washed up,
When the thing was impossible, there wasn't a hope,
Leger stepped in & upset the dope.

When down in Seattle, & the outlook thin,
And you needed 4 goals to scrape a win,
When the doubtful sed, "lose they must,"
They all decided, "we'll win or bust."

When away from home, without any friends,
And it seemed so hopeless to gain your ends,
When things were all set, & the end was soon,
They made Sas play a k-nother tune.

Yes, another game, 'twas do or die,
This was it, the old college try.
"Cinderellas" they called 'em, they wouldn't blow,
Hickey clawed, but the light didn't show.

Their glass slipper broke, shattered right there,
'Twas scattered afar on each golden stair;
They had given their ALL, what more can you do,
Further disheartened when TOLD they were thru.

Yet they weren't beaten, despite the score,
And it 'tisn't good-bye, just Au Revoir;
A longer intermission . . . it's nothing alarming,
"Still the other foot," says Roger Prince Charming.

There's no real fail, as long as one tries,
For seeming setbacks make a "Strongmen" wise,
There's NO defeat, save from within.

UNLESS BEATEN THERE . . . YOU'RE BOUND TO WIN.

$12,414 DAMAGES AGAINST POLICE OFFICER

Co-Insurance End Pledged

Liberal Parley Votes Down Urgent Advice of Premier

By GORDON FORBES, Times Legislative Reporter

VANCOUVER, April 25—The B.C. Liberal Party stands pledged to abolish co-insurance from the province's hospital insurance scheme if it is re-elected to govern the province at the June 12 general election.

PREMIER OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN

(Special to the Times)

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 25.—Despite the rejection of his co-insurance policy by the Liberal Party convention, Premier Byron Johnson prepared to launch the party's election campaign here tonight.

In his own riding the Premier will make the first major speech of a six-week tour that will take him all over Vancouver Island next week, then throughout the balance of the province.

There had been speculation the Premier might resign if over-ruled on what he considered a vital policy, but he has accepted the verdict of the convention as a majority party decision and will campaign for the platform as drafted.

In a hectic day-long debate, the party convention here Thursday voted down the advice and pleading of its leader, Premier Byron Johnson, and nailed down the "abolish co-insurance" plank into a 73-point platform on which it will appeal to the electors.

(Co-insurance provides that people going into hospital must contribute up to a maximum of $3.50 per day for the first 10 days' stay.)

In over-riding the Premier, despite his fighting speech on the issue, the convention wiped out his compromise proposal. This was to remove both co-insurance and premiums from marginal income groups, and to abolish co-insurance for maternity cases.

Both of these groups would, of course, escape co-insurance under the new plan.

After settling this controversial issue the convention hammered out the rest of its platform and finished the two-day rejection convention late in the evening.

A standing vote of 3 to 1 passed the co-insurance clause.

Main Points of Liberal Party's 1952 Platform

VANCOUVER, April 24.—The first straight Liberal party platform to be drafted in more than ten years has been finalized by the biggest Liberal convention in history held for the last two days here.

More than 800 delegates hammered out each plank in the platform in the hopes that their deliberations will place a Liberal government in Victoria for the next four years.

The convention was highlighted by lively debate which delegates felt "augurs well" for Liberalism in British Columbia.

In total the platform has 73 planks.

Here are the main ones.

1. Conduct the affairs of the province so the public and the investor will be assured of sound and stable administration of public affairs.

2. Recommend abolition of hospital co-insurance to the next legislature session.

3. Devise a program of improvements to secondary highways.

4. Continue the extensive highway development program on arterial highways and bridges.

5. Appoint a legislative committee to study the effect of forest management licenses on the logging industry, and in particular the small operator.

6. Appoint a legislative committee to survey the whole matter of education in the province, in particular the financial aspect.

7. Continue financial assistance to communities in the construction of necessary hospitals for acute and chronic cases.

8. Proceed immediately with construction of the Squamish North Vancouver road.

9. Extend the Pacific Great Eastern Railway into the Peace River district and into North Vancouver, and construct a lumber assembly dock at Squamish.

10. Encourage establishment of branch lines from the main trunk natural gas pipeline by giving favorable terms for right-of-way over crown lands.

11. Construct a new jail to relieve congestion at Oakalla Prison.

12. Evolve an education program to prevent inroads of narcotics into the province's youth.

13. Set up immediately a representative committee to study all phases of the problem of alcoholism and recommend a provincial program of treatment.

14. Give careful study to the inquiry reports on hospital insurance, labor laws and workmen's compensation.

15. Continue an aggressive policy in public health, including continued expansion of local health services; further development of the dental care program and the home care program, with emphasis on chronic and convalescent cases, and further development of a program of rehabilitation of handicapped persons.

16. Press claims to the federal government to get B.C. benefits similar to those provided by the Prairie Provinces Act.

17. Increase the agricultural department appropriation.

18. Instruct the B.C. Power Commission to make a survey with a view to utilizing the full generating facilities which may be obtained through use of natural gas.

19. Accelerate the rural electrification program and develop power as soon as possible to serve the Prince George-Queens area.

20. Construct a new boys' industrial school.

21. Expand the present farmers' land-clearing program to bring more agricultural land into production.

22. Give assistance to farmers in obtaining adequate water supplies.

23. Continue the building expansion program at the University of B.C.

24. Integrate the two normal schools into U.B.C. as a faculty of teacher training.

25. Revise the teachers' superannuation.

26. Establish a provincial safety council.

27. Establish regional safety conferences with employers and employees to minimize industrial accidents.

28. Establish a commission to improve the capital city (Victoria).

Dispute Results in Death Of Three Men in Alaska

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, April 25 (AP).—Three men are dead as a result of a dispute between two trappers in the tiny Yukon village of Kokrine, 200 miles west of here, U.S. Marshal Frank Chapados reported today.

Chapados said investigation disclosed one man was accidentally shot and killed and the other two men took their own lives after his death.

The trouble started with a fist fight between two trappers who were musing a dog team on the trail between Ruby and Kokrine. Native trapper Robert Bob received a bad beating at the hands of trapper Nelson McQuestion, the marshal said.

The following day, he added, Bob took a rifle and started a search for McQuestion to "get even with him."

Just as Bob and McQuestion were about to clash a bystander stepped between them and attempted to break up the argument. The bystander, identified as Fred Olin, was accidentally

AIRWOMAN'S DEATH TO BE INVESTIGATED

Coroner Will
Call 30 People

TORONTO, April 25 (CP).—Dr. Smirle Lawson, Ontario's chief coroner, said today he will subpoena 30 witnesses to testify at an inquest May 8 into the poison death a week ago of LAW, Lottie Machura, 27, formerly of Alonsa, Man.

The girl died after being treated at the suburban Weston supply depot at which she was stationed and three hours after she was admitted to Sunnybrook Veterans' Hospital.

UNLABELLED BOTTLES

The Toronto Star says today in a newspaper story that investigation has shown that strychnine given LAW, Machura by mistake came from an unlabelled bottle in the depot's dispensary. It was reported that there were other bottles in the dispensary without labels, the paper adds.

Witnesses, some from the defense department in Ottawa, will be called to the hearing. Some of the latter will be questioned as to why an investigation was not pressed farther in their department after they were notified by R.C.A.F. authorities in Toronto.

Dr. C. S. Dunning, coroner of North York township, listed the death as accidental, saying he had not called an inquest because there were no signs of foul play. An analysis of the stomach contents showed strychnine.

Meanwhile from his home in northern Manitoba, Cpl. Stanley Machura of the R.C.A.F. said in a telephone interview:

"I was told how my sister had died but I asked for an autopsy. I wanted it in writing. I believe there was negligence and I will probably take legal action."

Dr. Calvert Consecrated At Calgary

CALGARY, April 25 (CP).—Dr. George Reginald Calvert today was consecrated fourth Anglican bishop of Calgary in the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer.

He succeeds Rt. Rev. Harry R. Ragg, who retired Dec. 31 because of ill-health.

Bishop Calvert was consecrated by a former bishop of Calgary, Most Rev. L. R. Sherman, now Archbishop of Rupert's Land. Assisting was Most Rev. W. F. Barfoot, Archbishop of Edmonton and primate of the church.

Dr. Calvert, 52, was formerly dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria. (See picture, Page 3).

When Death Threatened

Duane Dunning, one of the rioting inmates of Jackson Prison, Michigan, is picked up by guards after being deposited in the prison yard by fellow mutineers. He complained of stomach cramps and was taken to hospital. The rest of the rebels remained blockaded in the prison and threatened death to the 10 guards held as hostages if police attempted to remove them. To save the hostages, authorities agreed Thursday to most of the prisoners' demands.

Hyatt Threatened Death To Guards in Reprisal

Canadian-Born Leader of Michigan Convicts
Handled Men Like Born Leader, Hostage Says

JACKSON, Mich., April 25 (CP).—Jack (Crazy Jack) Hyatt, the Leamington, Ont.-born convict who was one of the leaders in the Southern Michigan Prison riot, told police guards he would kill as many of them as he could if police stormed the rioters' embattled block 15—the infamous disciplinary centre where they seized a total of 13 guards as hostages last Sunday to pressure their demands for changes and held eight of them to the end.

The guard, Joseph Dzal, said in an interview that Hyatt was in charge of the floor in cell block No. 15 where the rioters held Dzal and other prison turnkeys as hostages.

"They call him 'Crazy Jack,'" Dzal said. "But you'll never get me to believe he's crazy. He treated us fine, and he handled those other guys with him like someone who had commanded men all his life."

"Through all the time we were there, every so often he'd have to go out and stop a fight or put down some minor disturbance among his followers. He handled everything in a calm, routine manner and always had the situation under control."

Hyatt's favorite pastime seemed to be sharpening his knives. "The sound wasn't one that let me do much sleeping. He told us, too, that if any attempt were made to storm No. 15, he (Hyatt) would be sure to be shot."

"Though before I go," he said, "I'm going to take as many of you along with me as I can."

TIGHTEN CONTROL
Meanwhile prison officials today moved to tighten their control over the overflow inmate population and guard against any future mutiny.

A convict rebellion ended Thursday only after the mutineers won their demands for 11 specific prison reforms.

However, state officials emphasized that rioters still face prosecution for crimes committed during the rebellion.

Governor G. Mennen Williams said that as far as punishment goes, the mutineers were promised that there would be no reprisals by members of the state department of corrections.

Leaders of the five-day mutiny voluntarily returned to cell block 15.

Kenneth Easton Wins Award for Son's Injury

A judgment against Sgt. Thomas Stevenson, of city police, in the amount of $12,414 has been handed down by Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane, of B.C. Supreme Court.

The sum is for injuries sustained by Murray Easton, 10, when struck and severely injured by an automobile driven by Stevenson in October, 1949. The accident occurred on Shelbourne Street.

Mr. Justice Macfarlane's judgment provides that $10,000 be paid as general damages and $2,414 as special damages. In addition, the judge orders Stevenson to pay costs of the court action.

Civil suit against the police officer was initiated by Kenneth E. Easton, 3441 Bonair Place, father of the boy.

Hearing of the case by Mr. Justice Macfarlane took eight days, during which six doctors were called to testify. The plaintiff called four and the defense, two.

In his judgment, His Lordship observed the medical men "were in violent disagreement as to extent and permanence of the injuries."

It was argued by the plaintiff's side that the boy would never fully recover from certain injuries received; would not be able to pursue a normal boyhood, and because of severe shock and loss of schooling would be somewhat mentally retarded.

When tried before a police court magistrate in connection with the accident Stevenson was found guilty of careless driving.

Reliable sources in Vancouver today stated that the election of Right Rev. Harold E. Sexton, Bishop of British Columbia, is "expected." Bishop Sexton is acting metropolitan and senior bishop in the province.

Announcement of the appointment will be made at the convocation of the Anglican Theological College at Brock Hall, University of British Columbia, tonight.

The archbishop's office carries with it the title of archbishop of the ecclesiastical province. He is addressed as His Grace.

The new metropolitan will be installed at a ceremony to be held at Christ Church Cathedral here Sunday night.

He will be installed by the Right Rev. F. Standford, Bishop of Cariboo. Eleven bishops, including two from the United States, are expected to attend the colorful ceremony.

Expect Sexton To Be Elected Metropolitan

The Anglican House of Bishops, meeting in Vancouver, will elect a new metropolitan of the ecclesiastical province of British Columbia today. The ecclesiastical province includes the Yukon.

The election follows the resignation last year, of the Most Rev. W. R. Adams.

Crater Erupts

MANILA, April 25 (BUP).—Dicas volcano, which rose out of the sea north of Luzon, is reported roaring and throwing fire and smoke high into the air today.

Reports from a naval station in northern Luzon said "a very unusual sound, thunder-like," could be heard by persons in the vicinity.

An eruption might cause tidal waves, officials here said.
